HALIFAX (CP)—L. B. Pearson, former minister of external affairs, said today the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is "not likely to survive" as an effective body if next month's meeting among heads of state at Paris fails to find a way of pooling resources.

NEW SESSION OF HOUSE PLANNED EARLY IN '58

OTTAWA (CP)—Works Minister Green today indicated the government aims to wind up the current session of Parliament before Christmas and call a new one early in the New Year.

In reply to Colin Cameron (CCF-Nanaimo), Mr. Green said "it was never the intention to have a regular session," which lasts from five to six months. "The work of the regular session will have to be done next year."

HOUSE OPENS JAN. 23

Bennett Blasts Short Money Talk

Next session of the B.C. Legislature will open Thursday, Jan. 23, at 3 p.m., Premier Bennett announced today.

"This follows the practice we started last year of giving the Leader of the Opposition time to study the Speech From the Throne over the weekend," he said.

The premier added that when the budget is brought down many people will "eat crow" over their statements that the government is in financial difficulties.

"He said there was 'absolutely no truth' to a report that about $6,500,000 in government cheques are being held back by the provincial treasury."

"This is just newspaper ballyhoo," he said.

NOT TOO FAR

Then with a broad grin the premier said:

"Of course I don't blame the press for starting these rumors ahead of the session—but don't go too far unless you want to eat crow at the next session."

The premier said he had compiled "a great fund" of newspaper editorials over the years "and some time I am going to have a lot of fun with them."

You have to have a sense of humor in public life."

FALSE

He said that statements to the effect contractors have not been paid for government work are "completely false."

"Good governments show up best in tough times," the premier philosophized. "What has confused our enemies is that we have reduced the provincial debt and are putting the province in good shape at the same time."

The premier said he was "very optimistic" over indications that the tight money policy in North America has been arrested.

CLEAR REVERSAL

"First Canada started to ease its money supply and Thursday the United States reduced its discount rate from 3½ to 3 per cent. This is a clear reversal of the trend towards tight money and the people of British Columbia, in particular, can breathe more easily as a result."

"If this trend continues, we shall feel the financial benefits in B.C. by about next May or June. In the meantime, our national government should introduce special policies to deal with conditions during the winter months."

More Wheat Offered On Special Credit

OTTAWA (CP)—The government plans to offer more wheat and other items for export on special credit terms and to double to $200,000,000 the maximum liability which the Export Credits Insurance Corporation may have outstanding for this purpose.

$72,800 Bank Theft

LONDON (AP)—Raiders blasted open the strong room of a suburban bank with powerful explosives Thursday night and made a clean getaway with about £26,000 ($72,800).

Wheat Prospects Good

REGINA (CP)—Trade Minister Churchill said today prospects for wheat sales this year are good and may allow Canada to regain her normal place in the international wheat trade.

Jewish Leaders Deny Protest Says Bennett

Premier Bennett stated today he had received a three-man delegation of Jewish leaders from Vancouver who rejected "anti-Jewish" allegations made against the B.C. Social Credit government.

He said these three "leading Jewish citizens" had dissociated themselves from organizations such as the United Jewish Peoples' League which have called on the government to repudiate anti-Semitic statements made at the B.C. Social Credit convention last month.

The premier intimated the delegation would be issuing a statement to this effect and he named Vancouver lawyer Nathan Nemetz, QC, as one of the delegation.

Small Boy Missing Since 4 a.m.

South Vancouver Island Rangers were called this afternoon to help Saanich police and RCMP in a search for a seven-year-old boy missing from his Holland Avenue home since 4 a.m. today.

Young Miles Hoffa, 3906 Holland, who has been seriously ill with influenza, wandered from his home at about that time and has not been seen since.

He is described as four feet in height, fair complexion, chunky in stature, blue eyes, wearing blue jeans, red tartan shirt, beige jacket, brown shoes and no socks.

Holland Avenue is near bush country on the border of Saanich municipality and unorganized territory in the northwest section of Victoria.

Abel masterminded a spy ring operation for nine years in the U.S. He was the first foreign national ever to stand trial for espionage in a civilian American court.

French Walk Out; Protest to Britain

(From Times' News Services)

Unprecedented indignation rocked France today at Thursday's announcement that both Britain and the U.S. were sending arms shipments to Tunisia.

Developments were:

1. Premier Felix Gaillard said that next month's NATO summit meeting in Paris could not achieve its aims for Atlantic solidarity unless the question of arms shipments to Tunisia is settled to France's satisfaction first.

2. France stormed out of a NATO conference in Paris, charging that the United States and Britain had "betrayed" the Atlantic Alliance.

3. France delivered a strong protest to Britain when Ambassador Jean Chauvel called on Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

4. In Tunis President Habib Bourguiba said a shipment of arms from Egypt will arrive soon.

5. Canada had known for some weeks that Britain and the United States proposed to send arms to Tunisia, external affairs officials said today. However, in the Commons Prime Minister Diefenbaker declined to answer the question directly.

In reply to Opposition Leader St. Laurent, the prime minister said he did not wish to say anything which might aggravate the situation.

Mr. St. Laurent and CCF Leader Coldwell both put the same question again: did the government have advance information?

Mr. Diefenbaker declined to reply.

"Same as Suez" was the comment from an unidentified member of the opposition side of the House.

In Paris, Gaillard told the National Assembly France refused to join in sending arms to Tunisia without proper guarantees because "it seemed to us essential that an international arms competition should not make out of Tunisia an arsenal for use by our enemies."

Gaillard said he intends to maintain pressure to settle the dispute.

"It is certain that unless a clear unequivocal solution is found before the NATO summit talks next December, the fundamental ideas of the NATO conference and the hopes which it arouses cannot fail to be put in doubt."

U.S. Democrats Side With France

A group of U.S. Democratic congressmen attending the meeting of NATO legislators joined France in denouncing the arms shipments.

The group, headed by Representative Wayne Hays of Ohio, said in a statement the arms deliveries "constituted a danger to the unity of the North Atlantic treaty alliance."

Bourguiba was making his weekly broadcast to the nation a few hours after a token shipment of British arms had arrived here. An American shipment was expected later.

Bourguiba said current American policy could help to bring about a solution of the Algerian problem.

Decision Held 'Ruthless, Unjustified'

Before the French delegation walked out of the NATO conference, Senator Michel Debre protested against the "ruthless and unjustified" Anglo-American decision.

Debre said: "President Eisenhower and Mr. Harold Macmillan have betrayed the Atlantic alliance... there can be no reconciliation as far as I, as a delegate to the NATO parliamentary conference, am concerned unless the United States and Britain stop forthwith the sending of arms to Tunisia."

Debre, a former follower of wartime premier Gen. Charles de Gaulle, said French soldiers fighting nationalist rebels in Algeria are writing home saying their "comrades are being killed by Atlantic Pact arms."

Liberal's Move Ruled Non-Confidence Vote

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Wilfrid LaCroix today moved a motion of non-confidence in the government for not indicating its intention to consider a national flag for Canada.

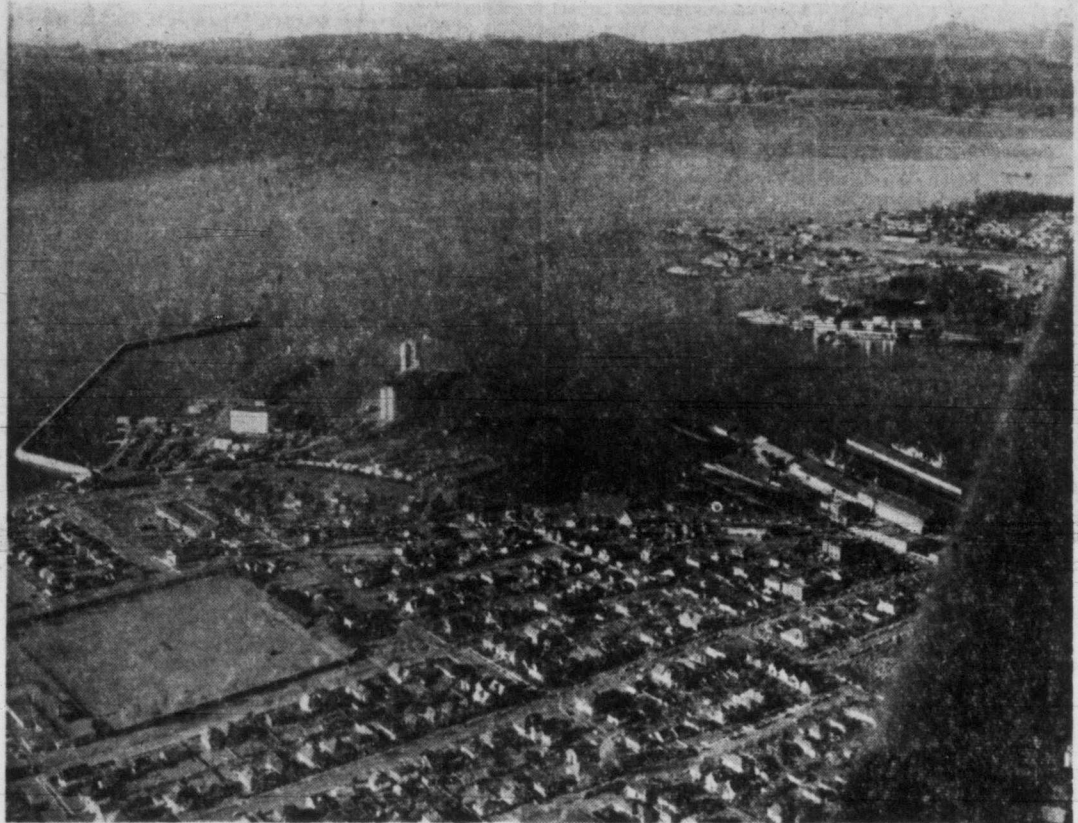

The member for Quebec-Montmorency, seconded by Raoul Poulin (Ind.-Beauce), said in his motion the government "should consider at once steps to give to this country a truly Canadian flag."

The motion may split Liberal ranks. Opposition Leader St. Laurent said at the start of the Throne speech debate that his party would neither move a non-confidence motion nor support one by another party because he felt the new government should be given a chance to place its legislative program before the Commons.

Mr. LaCroix said his motion was not one of non-confidence but parliamentary authorities said any motion amending the address in reply to the speech from the Throne constitutes an expression of non-confidence, unless it is accepted by the government.

Meanwhile, Liberal members were called into caucus to consider what stand the party will take on the proposal.

WORLD WARSHIPS TO DOT THIS SCENE

AFL-CIO OUSTS BAKERY UNION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL-CIO today suspended the Bakery Workers' Union from the federation.

AFL-CIO president George Meany said actions of the bakery workers' executive board constitute "failure and refusal to comply" with an Oct. 25 order of the AFL-CIO executive council.

Picketing remained quiet as the province-wide strike of 6,000 pulp workers entered its second day today but bitter verbal exchanges were made by the two sides.

Labor Minister Lyle Wicks said today he sees "no possibility" of an early settlement in the strike.

"It is a very serious situation and obviously it cannot be settled overnight," he said.

On Vancouver Island, where four pulp mills are being picketed by 1,635 workers, more bad news struck the Port Alberni area Thursday afternoon when MacMillan and Bloedel Limited announced a one-week layoff at its plywood plant, affecting 800 men.

James Petrie, manager of the company's pulp mill at Port Alberni, reported picketing by 525 strikers was proceeding quietly.

Pass Through Picket Lines

About 100 salaried workers, not involved in the strike, passed through the picket lines without incident today. The strikers also permitted stationary engineers and electricians to enter the plant to inspect equipment as a safety precaution.

A construction crew of about 350 men, working on an expansion project at the mill, crossed the picket lines to their jobs, Mr. Petrie said.

No incidents were reported at any of the other eight B.C. mills, including those at Harwood, Elk Falls and Port Alice on the Island.

A MacMillan and Bloedel spokesman said the one-week layoff at the Port Alberni plywood plant had nothing to do with the strike. The plant will be closed down all next week due to a general softening of the plywood market. The company's plywood plant in Vancouver will be closed down for the same reason the following week.

The spokesman said he could not hazard a guess whether further layoffs will be necessary.

No indications of settlement were apparent today as signs pointed to a lengthy strike, shutting off a $1,000,000 weekly combined payroll, after Thursday's wrangle.

D. R. Blair, manager of the pulp and paper industrial relations bureau in Vancouver, which has been negotiating for the seven companies involved, said management was "shocked" that the unions had taken strike action under present business conditions and in the face of "such a substantial offer from the companies."

He said there is no immediate prospect of a resumption of negotiations but the companies are ready to renew talks on the basis of a 7½ per cent wage

Credit Ease Spurs Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market raced ahead today in response to news four federal reserve banks had eased credit.

Huge blocks changed hands at the opening and the ticker-tape fell behind floor transactions. It never lagged more than two minutes, however.

At 11 a.m. the Dow Jones industrial index was up 9.37 at 437.31.

Stocks gaining $3 to $4 included Amerada, Gulf Oil, International Nickel, Du Pont, International Telephone and U.S. Borax.

The Toronto market opened strong following the U.S. announcement of credit ease but the strong buying surge faltered during the noon hour. As trading resumed in the afternoon the market widened its advance

Married Women on Even Footing For Unemployment Insurance

OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister Michael Starr today announced the end of an unemployment insurance regulation which, he said, had "overtones of discrimination" against married women.

From the start of next week, he told an applauding Commons, married women in the fund. Further, if she was working labor force "will be on exactly the same footing as all other claimants" for unemployment insurance.

The regulation being revoked required that any woman claiming insurance benefits within two years after her marriage had to have made 10 weekly contributions to the insurance fund. Further, if she was working at the time of her marriage, those 10 weeks of contribution had to be made following her first separation from her marriage-time job.

Mr. Starr said the government's action will extend insurance coverage to some 12,000 married women now barred from benefits by the regulation.

OTTAWA (CP)—The government today again declined to inform the Commons whether it will present a budget at this session of Parliament.

Finance Minister Fleming gave non-committal replies to several questions relating to the issue.

OTTAWA (CP)—Recent explosions in the Trans-Canada natural gas pipeline were caused by fatigue in the metal pipe, Prime Minister Diefenbaker today informed the Commons.

FIRE, THROWN PROPELLER, HIT BY METEOR?

Mystery Shrouds Crash of Airliner

(From Times' News Services)
HONOLULU — Complete mystery shrouds details of the fate of the luxury Pan-American stratoscruiser which crashed into the Pacific last Friday with 44 persons.

Recovery of 17 broken bodies in distress.

Thursday only deepened the mystery and the U.S. navy continued to press relentlessly for further clues.

Salient elements in the puzzle are:

1. Three of the 17 bodies recovered wore watches which had stopped at 5:27. The last message from the plane, a routine position report was sent at 5:04.

2. Thus, a four-engine plane with the most modern radio and safety equipment vanished at 10,000 feet altitude over a calm sea without sending out some hint, for 23 minutes, that it was in distress.

3. Most of the bodies wore life jackets, none of them wore shoes, a strong indication they knew the plane was to ditch.

4. All bodies had "external and multiple fractures" and there was some evidence of fire in the floating debris of mail, cushions and miscellaneous in the area.

5. A flotilla of small boats from the carrier Philippine Sea picked up the corpses and debris from the lost airliner.

Coastguard Capt. Donald MacDiarmid said the evidence "indicates the pilot did not have everything go sour suddenly or he would not have had time to warn people to get into jackets and get their shoes off. I would assume the pilot ditched the aircraft."

Asked why the big plane, Honolulu-bound from San Francisco, had sent no radio call after a routine position report at 5:04 p.m., MacDiarmid said: "So many things could have caused it, it's foolish to conjecture."

Other theories were that the plane may have thrown a propeller or been hit by a meteor.

Laika Now Dead Moscow Says So

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet scientist announced today that Laika, the dog in Sputnik II, suffocated when the oxygen regenerative equipment aboard the earth satellite stopped working.

The scientist, Alexei Pokrovsky told a press conference there never had been any plan to bring Laika back to earth. He said she died painlessly of oxygen deficiency when equipment designed to regenerate oxygen had completed its program.

There had been speculation that Laika died of a drug or poison administered with her last food. There also had been speculation that the Russians intended to bring her back to earth; and even one report here that she had been parachuted back.

ENDS SPECULATION

Today's press conference apparently was intended to set at rest all this speculation about the first living thing to get into outer space. One scientist said Thursday Laika will be immortalized on a plaque near Lenin's grave.

TUNISIA

The French delegation said in a statement it was walking out to express the feeling provoked in France "by the ruthless and unjustified decision of two NATO member governments."

It said it considered the search for Atlantic unity "has no further point," declared it would take no further part in the conference, and hoped that NATO leaders would consider "this breach of Atlantic solidarity" as soon as possible.

Ambassador Herve Alphonse in Washington was said to have been instructed to lodge a protest with the U.S. government.

Two British planes landed in Tunis early today with the first load of the western arms.

An American shipment was due in the Tunisian capital by plane later today.

SPAARK SEEKS PEACE

NATO secretary-general Paul-Henri Spaak buttonholed French delegation members in an attempt to have them reconsider their decision to walk-out.

"I think you are wrong in what you did," Spaak said.

A NATO spokesman told reporters that the French walk-out over the Tunisian arms affair would certainly be a principle topic at Saturday's meeting of NATO's 15 permanent representatives. The spokesman said that there had been no consultations within the NATO council before the British-American decision to ship arms to Tunisia.

Clement Davies, Liberal leader in the British House of Commons, told the Assembly he was "deeply distressed" by the French walkout.

Before the U.S. Democrats condemned the U.S. move in their joint statement, Representative Hays told the NATO assembly, an advisory group:

"The French have good grounds to be discouraged. I think delivery of arms to Tunisia was a tragic mistake."

Hays called the arms affair "a sterile and stupid policy."

After the French walkout, U.S. Senator Estes Kefauver (Dem. Tenn.) took the floor in the NATO assembly and went on to other matters as if nothing had happened.

France quit the NATO assembly for two months in 1955 after it voted to debate the Algerian rebellion. But Britain and the United States sided then with France, and the French delegation returned only after the assembly backed down and gave Algeria the brushoff.

increase recommended by a conciliation board majority. The unions struck to back demands for 12½ per cent boosts. Basic wage rate in the industry is $1.72 an hour which would be increased to $1.85 by the company offer. Average hourly earnings are $2.30 and would rise to $2.50, Mr. Blair said.

W. McCandlish, president of the International Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers local in Nanaimo, retorted:

"The companies, by having their bargaining done through a central industrial relations bureau, together with the nullifying effect of the province's Labor Relations Act, have made collective bargaining virtually impossible."

He said the unions found themselves dealing with company representatives "who have never worked a day in the industry, rather than the men who know every phase of it."

EFFECTS SPREAD

Effects of the strike began spreading today. Garth Griffiths, assistant general manager of B.C. Power Commission, said the shutdown of three of the island mills who were customers had produced "significant losses in revenue."

However, he added, even if the strike is prolonged it will not have any effect on the commission's staff requirements.

Loggers are in a different position. International Woodworkers of America locals at Victoria, Duncan and Port Alberni reported the strike has had no effect on their men but, if prolonged, could result in layoffs at logging camps and converter mills.

Reductions in United States demand and the strike have hit the pulp chips suppliers a double blow. Three mills at

SOVIET MERCHANT NAVY ALLEGED HUGE SPY RING

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A former Russian naval officer said today the Soviet merchant navy is a huge spy organization.

Lieut. Lev I. Predtetshevskii told a press conference every Russian merchant vessel carries several Red navy officers. These officers, he said, are spies who give their attention solely to exploration of foreign coastal waters, preparing nautical charts for military purposes and dredging out hydrographical data.

Youbou, Honeymoon Bay and Mesachie Lake have begun stockpiling chips that can't be shipped.

Largest of the strike-bound pulp companies, Powell River, reported it was making arrangements to buy newsprint supplies outside B.C. if needed to supply customers. A spokesman said most customers have at least a 60-day supply of newsprint on hand.

On other fronts, one strike was settled and another started. An eight-week strike by 60 members of Local 433 of the Pulp and Sulphite Converters Union went back to work today after Barret Roofing Limited, of Vancouver, signed a new contract providing a 16 per cent wage increase spread over two years.

But in Kelowna, no move has been made to end a strike of 180 Kelowna carpenters who Wednesday rejected a builders association offer of $2.35 an hour across the board. Present pay is $2 and $2.25 an hour.

Mafia Suspected In N.Y. Garbage Haulage Racket

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the racket-riddled garbage-hauling business in metropolitan New York raised a question today whether the Mafia mob is involved in the Teamsters Union generally and is out to take over the country.

Senator John McClellan (Dem. Ark.) and Senator Irving L. Ives (Rep. N.Y.) exploded into denunciation of racketeers and hoodlums after James Rosetti, president of the Greater New York Cartmen's Association, refused to testify lest he incriminate himself.

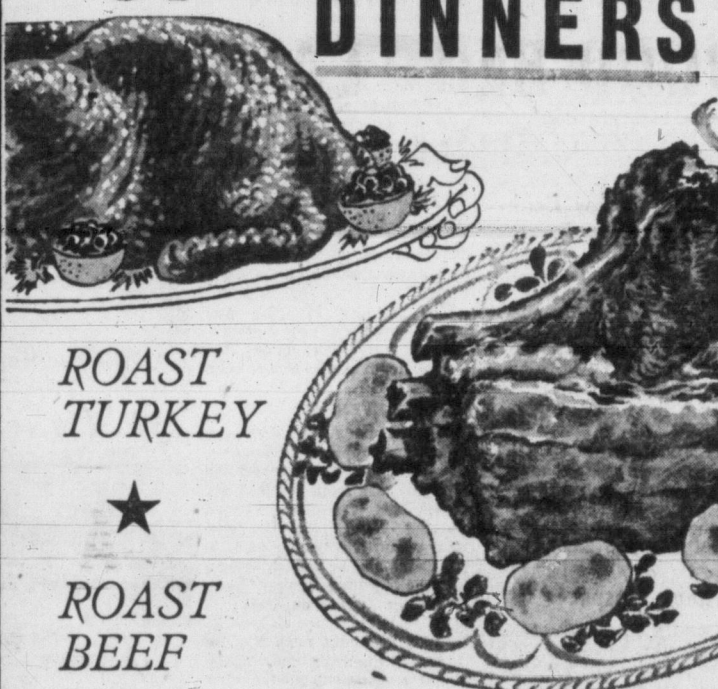

Ives, vice-chairman of the Senate rackets investigating committee, said that "all this testimony is developing a rather sinister note" and referred specifically to the testimony that the Mafia is in-

January New Target Date For First U.S. Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Army, already speeding work on earth satellites, may be ready to launch its space travellers by January.

But the boss of the program—Maj.-Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the army ballistic missile agency—was cautious in outlining progress Thursday night in a meeting with newspaper men.

He said considerable revamping of the Jupiter-C weapon research rocket is needed to adapt it for satellite launching.

The closest Medaris would come to a forecast was a statement that after a rocket is completely fabricated, it is not less than 30 days from the launching time.

He also noted that President Eisenhower had set March for launching of U.S. Navy's first fully-instrumented satellite with test firings of small spheres scheduled in December.

Medaris said the Russians apparently have reached a workable solution to the problem of getting a nose cone warhead of a missile back through the atmosphere and on target.

He emphasized that the United States Army has solved this problem with two tests using the Jupiter-C vehicle. Both tests of nose cone re-entry appear

Bits and Pieces Govt. Charges CCF's Knowles

The Progressive Conservative administration Thursday came under Opposition fire, for the second successive day, on charges it is providing no leadership or policies for the country.

Stanley Knowles, deputy CCF leader, said that the government is "a bits-and-pieces government without any general overall policy or political philosophy."

"This is an age in which a government should be giving leadership. The last one didn't. And this one has shown even less signs of doing so."

Mr. Knowles spoke in the second-last day of the Throne Speech debate as the House neared a vote on a CCF motion of non-confidence against the government.

The House later defeated the motion by a vote of 152 to 25. The Progressive Conservatives, most Liberals, the Social Credit party and the two Quebec independents in the House voted against the motion.

Four Liberals Support Motion

The CCF got support from four Liberals: Wilfred Lacroix (Quebec Montmorency), Hugh Prouty (Pontiac-Temiscamungue), Jean Boucher (Chateauguay-Huntingdon-LaPrairie) and C. W. Carter (Burlington).

The motion called for "social and economic planning" to meet inflation, unemployment and other serious problems.

Wednesday, an attack similar to that of Mr. Knowles was made by Hon. Jean Lesage, former Liberal resources minister, who said that the Conservatives are without policies of their own and are giving Canada "government by post-ponement."

Marcel Lambert, parliamentary assistant for defence, had a reply Thursday for Mr. Lesage.

Speaking before Mr. Knowles, the Conservative member for Edmonton West, said the Liberal administration was "government by ignorance, either wilful or blissful."

Today's problems existed before the June 10 election, he said. "If the Liberal administration didn't know about the problems, it should have known. If it did know, it did nothing."

Mr. Knowles, putting the

How to Injure Britain

SPEAKING RECENTLY TO THE Canadian Exporters Association, Mr. Gordon Churchill, minister of trade and commerce, blandly disposed of Mr. Diefenbaker's plan to divert 15 per cent of our business from the United States to Britain.

The abandonment of that project is carefully buried in Mr. Churchill's speech but his words are easily understood. He says:

"It is not the intention to interfere with competitive purchasing of imports—from whatever source. The eventual result should in fact be to foster, rather than impede, more competitive purchasing."

In plainer terms, the Government does not propose to impose on American goods any new tariffs or other restrictions that it does not impose on British goods. The goods of the United States and Britain must compete in the Canadian market on equal terms (apart, of course, from the existing British preferences long maintained by the former Liberal Government).

If purchasing by Canadian importers is to remain competitive, on these terms then, of course, the importer will continue to buy where he can buy most profitably. He buys nearly three-quarters of our total imports from the United States at present because he prefers American goods or because he can buy at the lowest available price in the United States. The Diefenbaker Government, says its trade minister, does not intend to change those arrangements.

Under such a policy there can be no diversion of 15 per cent of our business from the United States or anything like it. Mr. Diefenbaker's policy—or "objective," as he calls it—turns out on examination to be without any meaning whatever so far as Britain is concerned. And when the British Government offers us a free-trade deal well worth examination it is rejected with horror by the Diefenbaker Government.

The Diefenbaker Government does not intend, however, to leave the trade policy of its predecessors alone. It will not discriminate between British and American imports but it intends to restrict both.

There can no longer be any doubt that the Government's policy is to increase tariff protection over a pretty wide field of Canadian industries, though it may move slowly before an election.

Mr. Fleming, minister of finance, already has announced that Canada will negotiate, with its GATT trade partners, changes in the Canadian tariff on iron and steel, pipes and tubes, zinc and zinc products.

He says that some of the changes will be upward, some downward, though no details have yet been revealed. It can be argued, for the time being at least, that in the present GATT negotiations the Canadian Government is not attempting any large measures of increased protection. But it is difficult to see what else the Government has in mind as it reopens the existing tariffs.

There are other, even more significant straws in the wind. The Government has asked the Tariff Board to consider the difficulties of the Canadian textile industry and recommend tariff changes. The Board also is asked to consider imports of cheap footwear, various plastics, fluospar, fruits and vegetables.

The only purpose of these inquiries is to prepare the ground for definite tariff increases as vaguely promised by the Conservatives in the June election. Clearly a reversal of the Liberal Government's general tariff policy is under way.

Whether this is a wise or an unwise change is, and always was, a matter of controversy. But it makes a mockery of the Government's pretense of aiding Britain in the Canadian market.

In such things as textiles and steel products the Government's plan to raise tariffs means the restriction of British exports to Canada.

Not only does the Government reject free trade with Britain; it proposes to put new barriers in the way of Britain's business in Canada. Not only is the "diversion" of business from the United States quite phony but it fails even to disguise the true purpose of Government policy which is to divert business to Canadian producers.

Canadians will continue to argue the wisdom of this policy but Britain knows by now that it need expect no help beyond pious exhortation from the Diefenbaker Government. The pretensions of spring are dead on the eve of winter.

Not Following the Birds?

WHATEVER CASE CANADIAN Pacific Airlines presents to the Air Transport Board for its establishment of a "transcontinental" service, one glaring omission in its plans is immediately evident to Victoria. This city is not included in the scheme.

The Victoria Chamber of Commerce and the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau have been quick to call CPA's attention to that fact and to register protest.

Mr. Hugh Stephen, Chamber

president, presents impressive argument for extension of any proposed service to this city.

"If CPA is not proposing service to and from Victoria, they are flying in the face of statistics," he says. "The volume is there."

It is difficult to understand why any concept of a national domestic air transport service would fail to take into consideration this capital's interests and the potential interest traffic to and from Victoria should have for an airline.

Archdeacon Connell

THIS COMMUNITY HAS RECORDED the death this week of Archdeacon Robert Connell and has marked his passing with memories of a quiet, scholarly and gentle spirit. Since early in this century the cleric who turned to politics in the hope of furthering his high Christian ideals has been an impressive figure in Victoria. That he lacked all ostentation in no way hid his very genuine services to society.

A highly-regarded church figure, he had become widely known for attractive writings on nature subjects and science as it concerned the countryside in which he was so thoroughly at home.

In his articles, published in this and other newspapers, he had displayed not only a wealth of knowledge of his subjects, but a profound interest in and affection for the local scene.

At 86 he had lived a full life and had enriched the lives of those who had met him in person or in print.

FROM THE SLOAN REPORT

Signposts for B.C. Forest Policy Erected---The Next Move Is Up to the Government

(Last of a Series)

CHIEF Justice Sloan has painted a broad canvas in his report on British Columbia's forest resources.

In the wide panorama are dozens of subjects worthy of expanded individual treatment. They have been compressed and combined skilfully into a condensation which runs to 800 pages. The report is the summation of 6½ million words submitted to the commissioner.

In the relatively short series of newspaper articles carried in this space, it has been impossible to cover all the ground. Only some features of the report have been discussed. It seems proper, winding up, to glance at a few matters previously skipped.

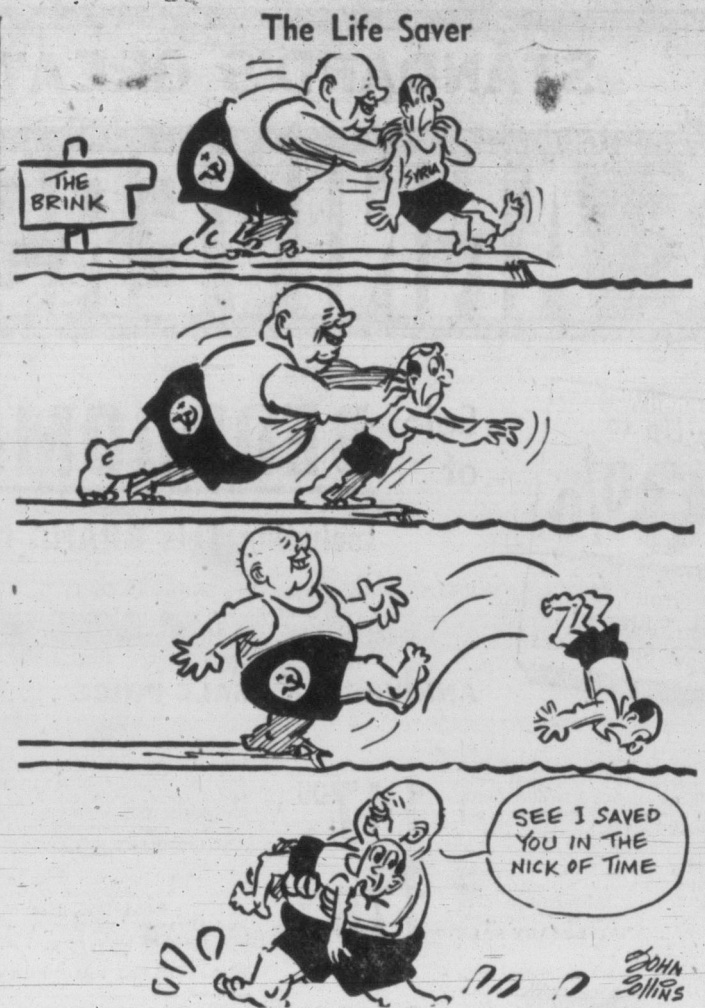

Possibly no field in the whole subject of forestry related to this province is more important than research. Research, in some form or other, touches almost every step from the consideration of seed ground to the final product of the processed wood.

Yet running through the report's particular section on research and interspersed in other chapters is the spirit expressed in the last words of Cecil Rhodes—"So little done—so much to do."

Most of the research undertaken on forestry in British Columbia is applied. Pure research is almost virgin territory, though the need for it is widely recognized.

As far as the B.C. Forest Service is concerned—and the quotes come from deputy minister and chief forester Dr. C. D. Orchard's testimony—"We just haven't had the staff or the money... maybe the Dominion Government, for example, or the University, are better adapted for that kind of work than the Forest Service."

In the realm of applied research, ground has been made. Much more remains untracked. Research is needed to define the best methods of growing

The View From Khattusas

EVEN a new earth satellite, complete with dog, even Nikita Khrushchev, complete with all powers of Josef Stalin, cannot alter or diminish the view from the Lion Gate of Khattusas.

The city was mighty in its day, nearly four millennia ago, in our troubled world's first era of great power wars. But this mighty capital of the Hittite power that sacked Babylon and drove Tutankhamun's feeble viceroys out of northern Syria, was still no more than a vast, battlemented fort. Its rough, gigantic walls, girding the highest pinnacle of this high, tawny mountain, enclosed arsenals well stored with weapons, soldiers' dwellings, palaces of kings and generals, but probably little else.

Alsop

Through this very gate, perhaps, between the crude, brutal yet majestic sculptured lions, came the triumph of the Hittite king after the famous fight at Kadesh, when the young Ramesses and old pharaoh's chariotry swerved back in sudden terror from the blood-red river.

Fiery horses, stronger than the soft breed of the South, iron weapons, the first man ever used in war, and a rough soldier aristocracy, were the sources of the Hittite power. But even the king's horses must have been sadly winded by the long, cruel pull up the steep, enormous slope of mountain face.

History Stretches Out

Standing by the Lion Gate, one thinks of those winded horses, and of that crude, tumultuous triumph, and of Ramesses also celebrating the still more pompous but more empty triumph for the usual propaganda purposes. Here, from this pinnacle, history seems to stretch out, forward and backward, a dark, illimitable, ever-changing prospect all mingled—iron and verdure, gold and blood.

The real prospect is breathtaking enough, for no empire in all history so magnificently placed its capital city. Khattusas's Lion Gate stands upon the utmost peak of a wild mountain wall with flanks copper-stained and iron-stained in vast, alternate patches of brand green and crimson.

But this real prospect, with all its present beauty, is also a worn parchment on which history has written and rubbed out, written and rubbed out, written and rubbed out, a long succession of different human stories. From these heights the plain below shows as from an airplane, with marks of past as well as present. That dimple in the earth there, over by the remotest stream—was it, for example, a village site lived in and loved by men forty or fifty or sixty centuries ago?

It may well have been, for here in Turkey all of history has just been rather drastically revised by a little digging in just such an earth-dimple at Hacilar in south central Anatolia.

The man who did the digging was a young British archaeologist, James Mallert. He found pretty red and yellow pottery; and rough images of the great mother goddess; and grains of wheat and barley and a kind of pulse; and a child's toy in the image of an ox; and bones of sheep and goat, pig and cattle. A few drawers in a museum will hold the lot, but Mallert's sherds still tell a stirring story.

In just such villages as these, neolithic man originated what we perhaps too flatteringly describe as civilization, by the simple act of producing more than could be instantly consumed. Of such villages, up to now, there has been Jericho, oldest of all, in Palestine; and the sites in Egypt and Mesopotamia; and Mersin on the edge of Anatolia; and finally Seskio in Thessaly, the Greek site where civilization's story begins in Europe.

Links

Now, half way between Europe and Mesopotamia, there is also Hacilar. The sherds of Hacilar are the direct line, or so the greatest experts say, between the sherds of Grecian Seskio and the sherds of Mersin and of Mesopotamian Hassana. And by this suddenly provided link, the date of Seskio is moved back a thousand years, to something like five thousand years before our Lord; and thus the history of European civilization has suddenly been lengthened by a full millennium.

To Hacilar and Mersin, Seskio and Hassana the same end came. Neighbors or newcomers wiped them out at last. So also ended the story of that earth-dimple in Khattusas plain, if it even had a story. So also ended the story of this Khattusas of the Hittites, which was the capital of the first true state ever organized by one of the Indo-European people, those various tribes with a common tongue out of the misty past who were the ancestors of Elsenhower and Khrushchev and Nehru too.

So here, under Khattusas's walls, one thinks of the long succession: the neolithic peoples; the Sumerians trading into Anatolia for copper; and the Hittites pushing in from the Russian-Asian steppes; and all the strange welter of tribes Xenophon found on his road to the sea; and those Gauls who were Saint Paul's Galatians; and Phrygians and Lydians and Greeks; and Medes and Persians and Armenians; and Romans and Byzantines and Turks. All these and many more, this Anatolia has seen, grow great and be humbled in the end.

Remembering all this, one remembers too the lines of the Polish poet, Antoni Slonimski, written when freedom made its new start in Poland: "Only the free and fearless thought of man can justify the long survival of this ignoble jungle which we call our world."

As Our Readers See It

Flouting the Law

Lotteries or sweeps are illegal in Canada. Many citizens have been convicted and fined for participating in sweeps or lotteries.

Why do not the authorities prosecute the prize winners, whose names and addresses are boldly published in the daily press?

If you win you are above the law, is that the idea? Can hypocrisy go further? Wonder do the prize winners pay income tax on their illegal winnings?

'When Brutality Prevails'

It is a regrettable fact that in Canada our food animals, are still, for the most part, slaughtered by primitive and inhumane methods.

Most of us enjoy eating meat, and there is no reason we shouldn't, without being interested in the way in which it is obtained.

But, as that great humanitarian, Albert Schweitzer said "When so much brutality prevails in our slaughter houses... we all bear the guilt of it."

Yesterday, I received a revealing pamphlet from the SPCA—unpleasant reading, but one that should be read by all who detest unnecessary cruelty, and who would like to know how they could help to bring about the necessary legislation.

I understand that copies of the pamphlet may be obtained free on application to the SPCA, 111 Wilson Street, Victoria, B.C.

Dig Down

Mr. Victor Williams certainly has his nerve criticizing the Soviets for their anti-Semitic and fascist tendencies when he and the political party he is a member of are just as much responsible for the existence of such things as the Soviets are.

All the invective in the world will have no effect on racial discrimination or fascism so long as their basic cause remains untouched, e.g., the economic base of modern society of wage-labor and capital.

The record shows that wherever social democratic organizations have existed, in Argentina, Spain or Germany, when the needs of capital demanded more authoritarianism than usual, the reform organizations were powerless to stop it, and in some cases accelerated it.

The common plank which identifies the CCF type parties everywhere with the Communists, the Fascists and all other parties except the Socialist, is their universal acceptance of capitalism. Their useless nostrums stem from this acceptance.

If the CCFers wish to set themselves up as champions of freedom and equality, they ought to dig down and find out why there isn't much of that stuff around.

'Unholy Mess'

For sheer audacity and self delusion the Social Credit party and their Oct. 27 press releases win the crocheted shaving mug.

Here we have a majority Sacred government which aspires to govern the whole of Canada, yet is woefully incapable of controlling any of the various departments within a stones-throw of the legislative chamber.

At least we are informed by the Socreds why government business is in such an unholy mess. Apparently the Jews have infiltrated into all the top positions at the buildings, plotting diabolical schemes to infuriate the peasants both in and out of civil service.

Tyrants of all ages used whipping boys to bolster their own impotency, so presto! Let's blame the Jews for our own lack of Christian principles. Heil Hitler!

'Good Hunting, Good Sense'

While the high cost of meat is a major problem in the average home, the majority of deer hunters are primarily sportsmen, not meat hunters.

In the interests of conservation of this sport it is regrettable to note that the Game Regulations 1957-1958, permit hunters on Vancouver Island to shoot antlerless deer including "does and all animals under one year of age."

Surely the shooting of a fawn, or a doe just at the close of the mating season could not possibly interest a true sportsman. The shooting of two does permissible under regulations could, directly and indirectly, destroy ten deer.

On Vancouver Island twin fawn is the general pattern of deer reproduction. A doe shot in November in all probability has the responsibility for two fawn born in the early summer of this year. These fawn need their mother in order to survive their first winter.

It is logical to assume that the doe shot had recently mated and could again produce twin fawn early next summer. This adds up to the loss of five deer or, for the two does permissible per hunter, a total of ten deer. Cut this estimate 50 per cent and it still gives a sportsman food for thought.

The deer population of Vancouver Island has been deeply disturbed by our logging industry. While spotted surveys may produce heavy population figures, the overall deer population on Vancouver Island is fast declining. This is very evident south of the Koksilah River.

True, certain portions of the Highland District, where farm forage and dense adjacent cover provide ideal conditions, maintain a healthy deer population year after year. But our Malahat, Shawnigan and Sooke areas show a very low figure. The periodic new album provided by heavy rain or light snow does not record imprints comparable with former years.

Nature in her wisdom protects the new-born fawn and mother doe. The spotted camouflage of the fawn, along with absence of scent of both doe and fawn at this period contribute to their protection. Nature has also arranged that the buck deer at this period carry very sensitive new horn growth which keeps them out of the heavy brush or thickets which might bruise the tender new growth—thus preventing them from molesting or possibly killing the fawn.

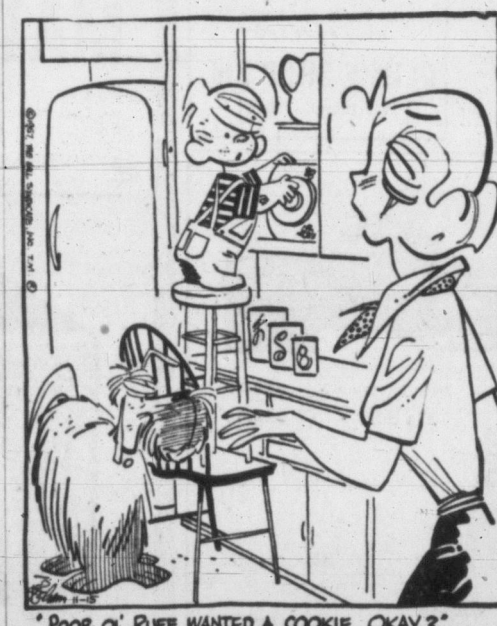

The "any age any sex" game regulations make a mockery of Nature's efforts and will surely result in further depletion of deer population.

Our sportsmen should, and do, value the excellent research work of our game biologists. However, it is possible that the terrain conditions of Vancouver Island call for regulations not based on the findings of game research in various parts of the U.S. In the interests of good hunting and good sense, we must protect our does and fawn by more realistic game regulations.

GORDON SWORD.

UNEF Must Stay Between Israel, Egypt Says Burns

United Press Staff Correspondent

CAIRO (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Edson L. M. Burns, chief of the UN Emergency Force in the Mideast, said today he believes an international force must remain between Egypt and Israel for the foreseeable future, as trouble may break out again between the two countries.

The Canadian general, in an exclusive interview with the United Press on the first anniversary of UNEF's arrival in Egypt, said he believed Egypt was not building up its forces in Sinai as charged in recent reports from Israel.

"I do not believe the time has come, or is likely to come soon, when the withdrawal of UNEF might not create a difficult situation," Burns said.

"I hate to think there will have to be permanent United Nations forces along this line," the general said.

"On the other hand, people hate to think of it going away and the situation deteriorating into what it was before."

"The force was supposed to remain until the situation cooled down and some kind of a permanent settlement was negotiated."

Burns said the situation certainly was not very promising. "I cannot see any possibility of the situation being changed enough in the immediate future to permit UNEF to be withdrawn," he said.

S.A. Ignores Ghana

PRETORIA, South Africa (UPI)—South Africa has decided not to attend a conference of independent African nations next January in Accra, capital of newly-independent Ghana, the department of external affairs announced today.

NO FUEL FOR H-TESTS BRITISH PAPER CLAIMS

LONDON (Reuters)—Britain had to call off its recent Pacific hydrogen bomb tests because it was running out of vital fuel, the News Chronicle says today.

The newspaper says fuel for the explosions on Christmas Island in the South Pacific was seriously cut by a recent accident at the Windscale plutonium plant. The plant produces "cartridges" for atomic and hydrogen bombs.

Up to three tests were due to be held before the end of the year but they were called off after one "nominal" explosion, the paper says.

Canadian Diplomatic Postings Announced

OTTAWA (CP)—Three of Canada's top diplomatic representatives have been appointed to new posts, the external affairs department announced today.

Charles S. A. Ritchie, 51, Canadian ambassador to West Germany and head of the Canadian military mission in Berlin has been named Canada's permanent representative to the United Nations with the rank of ambassador.

Mr. Ritchie will be succeeded as ambassador to Germany and head of the Canadian military mission in Berlin by Escott M. Reid, 51, who has been serving as a member of the Canadian delegation to the 10th session of the General Assembly of the United Nations. Mr. Reid previously was Canadian high commissioner to India.

Dr. Robert A. Mackay, 62, present permanent representative of Canada at the UN, has been appointed Canadian ambassador to Norway and minister to Iceland. He succeeds Chester A. Ronning, whose appointment as high commissioner to India was announced earlier.

All Comes Out in the Wash

A MAN with a memory, they tell me, can accomplish prodigies in knowledge and scholarship.

I am most unprodigious. Memory is a reed I have learned not to lean on, even lightly. Now, when something comes to my notice which is worth keeping in mind, I jot down a note on it and put the note in my shirt pocket.

This is a somewhat different technique from that used by my friend next door, who is also a jotter. He files his information away in the breast pocket of his jacket. Over the weeks—and between dry-cleanings—the notes wad down in the pocket to produce an engaging figure distortion.

Approached on the starboard bow he achieves semi-Lolobrigida lines.

Once placed in our respective mobile files, his memos and mine arrive at the same state of uselessness. We both forget them. At cleaning time, each of us is confronted by an illegible mass. His is ground wood, since he removes it before sending his jacket out. Mine is pulp, because I forget to take the slips out of my shirt pockets and they go through the washer.

LOST TREASURES

This may be a great loss to literature. Both of us, on the bus or distracted temporarily from the subject in our typewriter, pencil out not just notes to ourselves. We set down brilliant phrases, sometimes whole sentences. These are carefully husbanded to be introduced into columns for their brightness and sparkle.

It may be true, that these columns lack brightness and sparkle. The fault lies not with the writers. It lies with the writers' faulty memories which force us to note down on bits of paper the scintillating things we wish to put in print, and the faulty memories which let us forget we've pocket-filed these pearls.

At this writing I am gazing at a wad of paper that looks as if it might have been chewed idly by an errant school boy day-dreaming away from the subject in class. It has come from the pocket of my new-laundered shirt. On it was doubtless scribbled words that defy imagination.

But if it is a wad, it has been thoroughly washed and nicely pressed by a steam iron. As wads go, it is well-groomed.

Gazing at it, I ask myself if this residual waste from a washing machine could have carried on it fine words that might have sung their way to eternity. There is nothing in the lump to prove it did not.

And I am forced to the conclusion, if there are many who file notes to themselves as I do, that full many a gem of purest ray serene the dark unfathom'd caves of Bendix bear.

WASTED FRAGRANCE

This is deep personal tragedy to me, since only my best thoughts are so jotted down, so washed and so born to bluish unseem and waste their fragrance on the clothesline's air.

It makes you realize how fortunate were the classical figures who worked, unkempt, uncared for, in the muck of a dusty garret as they wrestled divine inspiration onto paper. No automatic clothes washers there, no respectable wife to insist that a man's shirts be clean and to determine that something be done about it.

I was propounding this idea to the boss of our house just after I had donned my new-laundered faded blues the other day. She wasn't impressed.

"Look," she asked, "do you have to slouch around with your hand stuck in your hip-pocket that way when you're talking to me?"

And I answered, "Yes. That's where I had my package of chewing gum before you did the last wash."

From the way she muttered, I gathered she might empty my hip pockets before the next laundry. Maybe, if I left some gum in my shirt . . .

Must make a note of that.

UN CORRESPONDENCE

By CHARLES LYNCH

Story Behind Arms Dispute

NEW YORK—When allies agree, they usually are willing to talk freely about the subject at hand—but when they disagree, information suddenly becomes very difficult to obtain.

The subject at hand last week was disarmament, and the disagreement was over what constitutes a victory, and what does not.

The allies were the Western members of the disarmament sub-committee, Canada, the United States, France and the United Kingdom. The problem was what to do about Russia's announcement that she intended to boycott future sessions of the sub-committee, of which she is the fifth member, and also of its parent body, the disarmament commission.

The main difference in the Western camp on how to proceed was between Canada and France, with the United States and the United Kingdom closely involved. It would be fascinating to know what was in the reports that the delegations here sent to their home governments; but these are state secrets, and all we can do here is piece the story together as best we can, from information that does not necessarily come from the principals concerned.

Canada's attitude from the outset of the disarmament debate here was that there should be flexibility in the Western approach, and that everything within reason should be done to ensure at least that the disarmament negotiations went on. Obviously, if the parties stopped talking, there could be no hope of agreement.

SPECIAL VISIT

Sensing that Russia was getting ready to ditch the disarmament sub-committee, Prime Minister Diefenbaker said Canada was willing to vacate her seat and give it to somebody else, if it appeared that such a move would be helpful. External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith made a special visit here to repeat the "flexibility" theme.

But there was opposition to the "flexibility" idea from France. Once the Western proposals were formulated, France more than anybody else insisted that there could be no concessions. On several occasions when Britain and the United States might have been willing to modify a minor point in the interest of possible agreement, France said no.

CITY COUNCIL BRIEFS

Aldermen Ask Parley On Teacher Wage Bid

City council, expressing "grave concern" over an 18 per cent wage boost requested by district teachers, will seek a meeting with the school board.

Ald. Hugh Ramsay proposed the meeting.

Ald. G. I. Edgell asked council to request the government to "take a new look at school financing."

(A special Union of B.C. Municipalities Committee is already dealing with the government on the question.)

Ald. M. H. Mooney felt school construction costs should be investigated also by council.

"I can't visualize why schools should cost $40,000 a room. The public is entitled to know why the cost is so much."

School costs represent one-third of the city's annual expenditures and salaries are the greatest portion of the overall school bill.

Council zoning committee will investigate charges that Victoria Zoning Appeal Board wields too much power.

Ald. Arthur Dowell said the department of municipal affairs should also be approached.

Council ordered the study after Ald. McEwen charged the city zoning by-law is too

... "take a new look"

stiff and the appeal board has too great an autonomy. "Millions of building dollars are being diverted from our city because of the zoning by-law," he stated.

Greater Victoria Ministerial Association asked council to "observe the needs of working people and their families" when deciding hours of operations for city service stations.

The association felt careful attention should be given to the regulations now being drawn up, which might permit unrestricted Sunday gasoline sales and service.

The whole matter of service station regulation will come up to council again November 28.

Health and welfare chairman, Ald. Mrs. Lily Wilson, told council her department will experiment in stationing Victorian Order of Nurses in selected boarding homes to care for elderly patients who might otherwise require nursing home care, or chronic hospital care. She said a study will be made to determine if the system could be economically operated.

Ald. Ramsay suggested council ask Oak Bay and Esquimalt to share maintenance costs of Beaver-Elk Lake Park.

The park is being developed by a $52,000 Centennial grant partly provided by the four Greater Victoria municipalities.

He reasoned the expanded park area will increase maintenance costs which previously have been met by Victoria and Saanich. Saanich has in the past put up $3,000 annually and Victoria $6,000.

He said in 1958, Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee wants $12,000. An 8-4 split is suggested, but the aldermen felt contribution should be on a per-capita basis — which Saanich refused when it was suggested earlier.

Memorial Arena Commission reported on a question asked earlier—how do salaries paid in other cities to arena managers compare with the $8,400 paid annually for the position here?

The commission said 17 cities in Canada and the U.S. had been polled but only five have replied and they asked the information given, be kept confidential. Ald. Hugh Ramsay, who asked the question last month, won council assent to a motion to table the matter for two weeks.

The Boy Scout organization is one of the greatest youth movements in the world, Ald. M. H. Mooney told council. "... and I hope council will decide to give them a real grant in 1958, not just a grant in lieu of taxes."

He was annoyed at recent charges that the Scouts had perpetrated a "terrible hold-up" in sale of oranges.

"Another instance of people making statements before they know what they are talking about," he said.

The charge was later withdrawn, and the businessman who complained to city finance committee, made a public apology to the Scouts.

FIRE LOOKOUT FORREST BURNS

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Forrest Burns has assumed his duties as a forest fire lookout at the state conservation department's Big Bay fire tower in Marquette county.

CITY COUNCIL BRIEFS

Horseshoe News wrote council in opposition to house-to-house sales of magazine subscriptions by district school children.

Ald. McEwen said all canvassing groups should be required to file financial statements with the city. But no action was taken.

Sisters of St. Ann advised through their solicitor, a tax concession is due St. Ann's Academy for land which contains an historical site, as laid down in the Municipal Act.

The historical site was described as a 99-year-old school still standing in the academy grounds. It was established in 1858 and is the first school set up here by the Sisters.

The request will be studied and a report made to council.

Answers were provided 39 questions filed by Ald. E. D. McEwen October 14.

The questions covered phases of the new business tax administration, assessment, fire and police financing, meter patrols, garbage and the municipal manager's department.

Ald. McEwen explained the questions were meant "just for general information."

Council agreed to an entertainment committee recommendation that $1,230 be expended for purchase of blazers for presentation to Victoria Shamrocks Junior and Senior lacrosse teams.

The gifts will honor their participation in national championship playoffs. The senior team is winner of the Mann Cup. Presentation will be made at a date to be announced.

Ald. Hugh Ramsay suggested a dinner instead as "... this is a sizeable amount." Forty jackets will be purchased.

Council approved preparation of a by-law which will enable police to order any car to be towed away if it is left between 4 and 6 p.m. in restricted parking zones downtown.

Zones referred to are mainly on Fort, Government, Johnson and Douglas.

A proposed $230,000 garbage wharf, barge and incinerator-renewal project was tabled by council for further study.

Public works committee had asked $80,000 now available in the reverted lands sales fund be earmarked to begin the job.

Millions in Government Loans For Maritime Power Development

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker announced Thursday a multi-million-dollar federal plan of loans and subsidies to help Nova Scotia and New Brunswick expand and connect their power facilities during the next 10 years.

Replying to a Commons question from CCF leader Coldwell about similar aid to Saskatchewan, the prime minister said:

"The basic concept and the spirit of this policy will apply wherever a case by provincial governments is made out."

This was interpreted as meaning the Nova Scotia-New Brunswick program will be an initial step toward implementing the national development policy the Progressive Conservatives have advocated for some time.

NO ESTIMATE

Mr. Diefenbaker's statement in the Commons made no estimate of the full cost of the power development. He said it would be "largely self-financing and self-liquidating."

It includes a $30,000,000 loan to New Brunswick and a federal subvention on Maritime coal used to produce power for industrial use in the area.

Resources Minister Alvin Hamilton later told a reporter that more than $100,000,000 in federal funds is expected to be spent on construction of steam power plants in the two provinces and transmission lines connecting their power systems. Both the $30,000,000 loan and the plants-lines expenditure, however, will be repaid to the federal government eventually. The only outright federal financial aid, therefore, would be through the coal subvention.

TOT REFUSED CANDY BAR ... REASON, $100 BILL

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Money can't buy everything—sometimes not even a nickel candy bar. A little girl learned that Thursday when she innocently asked for some five-cent candy and handed a shopkeeper a $100 bill.

Instead of the candy, the bill brought—running—her school principal, then her mother.

'BEST IN ARCTIC'

U.S. Admiral Lauds Radiomen from RCN

A radio communications team of the Royal Canadian Navy has been credited by a U.S. admiral with providing, during the 1957 DEW line supply operation, "the best communications yet experienced in the Arctic."

The ten-man team, headed by Lt. H. C. Clark, Vancouver, operated a radio station at Frobisher, Baffin Island, from July 1 to Oct. 15.

One member of the team was a Victoria man, Lt. Kenneth S. Westwood.

Commendation for the team came from Rear-Admiral Roy Gano, commanding task force six of the Atlantic Arctic Task Force, Military Sea Transportation Service.

MAJOR FACTOR
A message to the group stated: "The performance of duty exhibited by your personnel in support of 1957 Military Sea Transportation has reflected the greatest credit on the Royal Canadian Navy and has been a major factor in providing MSTSLANT ships with the best communications yet experienced in the Arctic. Well done."

In addition to Lt. Clark and Lt. Westwood, the team consisted of PO Howard J. Oja, and Leading Seamen Glen A. Fraser, Robert A. McDonald, Dennis L. Craigie, Garry W. Buchan, Leonard G. Ashcroft, Robert A. Cadman, and Ollis E. Wulowka.

Laing Wants UBCM Men With Bennett

Premier Bennett was urged Thursday to include at least two nominees of the Union of B.C. Municipalities in the group accompanying him to Ottawa for the federal-provincial fiscal conference Nov. 25-26.

Liberal Leader Arthur Laing suggested in a telegram to the premier that they be included "in an advisory capacity."

He approved of Premier Bennett's decision to include Mayor Fred Hume of Vancouver, but said other B.C. municipalities have different financial problems than Vancouver.

"House of Commons debates have featured the plight of the municipalities and I am sure your position and effectiveness would be greatly assisted by the presence of municipal representatives."

Wealthy Recluse Dies

BALTIMORE (AP) — Neighbors thought 60-year-old Emilian Kimiek was destitute. Police found him dead Thursday night in a second-floor room where he lived alone. They also discovered nearly $2,000 in cash, 21 government bonds worth $25 each and bank books showing deposits of $18,938.01.

Death Misses Truman

NEW YORK (AP) — Former president Truman almost was hit by an automobile while crossing 84th Street and Park Avenue Thursday. As he crossed with the green light, the traffic signal changed. A car which had stopped for the light rolled slowly toward him, coming to within two or three inches of Truman.

'Back Door' Freeze On Pay Charged

Hospital Workers Say Martin Unfair In Implying Their Salaries Trebled

Wage freezes "via the back door" were charged Thursday against Health Minister Eric Martin by employee associations at Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals.

A joint statement issued by the associations, representing 850 non-nursing staff employees, attacked a statement by the minister this week that in nine years of BCHIS operation wage outlays have trebled at hospitals.

UNFAIR
The statement said that although wage outlays have increased three times, it was unfair to impart the impression that salaries have trebled. Main cause of the larger wage outlay was "due to the costs of furnishing extra staff to cope with the ever-increasing patient coverage required by BCHIS."

Although not issuing an actual wage-freeze order, the minister "makes a point of informing hospitals that BCHIS will not make monies available to cover wage increases" at a time when working agreements come up for negotiation, the statement said.

"This is a wage freeze applied via the back door."

Majors Start Trading Talk

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Lane, new general manager of the Cleveland Indians, was laying the groundwork, Thursday, for a possible player trade with Kansas City Athletics.

Lane and Arnold Johnson, owner of the Athletics, talked trade possibilities for about an hour when Johnson telephoned to congratulate Lane on his appointment. Johnson said he needed pitchers and outfield help and Lane said infielders were his prime concern.

Players mentioned included outfielders Al Smith and Rocky Colavito of the Indians and second baseman Billy Martin and first baseman-outfielder Vic Power of the Athletics.

ELIMINATION CARD

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Isaac Logart of Cuba and Gaspar Ortega of Mexico will fight here Dec. 6 in the first elimination 12-rounder of the International Tournament to produce a welterweight champion.

Tiremen Take Opener In New Hoop March

Dickinson and Dunn, defending title Senior "B" basketball champions, didn't let much grass grow under their feet Thursday night at Central Junior High School when they won their first league outing of the season, thumping Morrisons 52-37.

Big gun for the Tiremen was playing-coach Norm Baker with a 12-point night while young Paul Clarkson was right behind with 11 points. High man for the losers was Al Olmstead with 11 points.

Missing a number of last season's players, D & D lost little time in asserting their mastery as they swept to a 27-17 half-time lead on their way to handing Morrisons their second defeat of the season.

Rejects Commission

The broker who originally listed Gnesdloff's house for sale, Peter Morgan, turned back the brokerage contract to the owner, declaring:

"You sold the house on your own and I had nothing to do with it. I couldn't take the commission."

It would have been $1,100.

Mayor George Christopher said he was relieved because "the reputation of San Francisco, always renowned as a cosmopolitan city of brother understanding, was at stake."

When Gnesdloff originally turned down the Mays' offer because of heavy pressure, the couple was badly upset. Mrs. Mays explained it was their second such turnaround.

Willie took the dispute more calmly but lashed out at the "concealed prejudice in northern and western cities which profess to be relatively free of such things."

"It is worse than down South, where you know where you stand and there are signs to go by. Here you walk into these things blindly and have no signs to guide you."

Lane Surveys Indians; Score Indispensable

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Lane, the man entrusted with the job of rebuilding Cleveland Indians and reviving spectator interest, said he will not hesitate to make any player deal he thinks will help attract fans to Municipal Stadium.

Appointed Tuesday as general manager of the Tribe to succeed Hank Greenberg, Lane spent a day discussing player personnel with Greenberg.

He said he has several possible deals in mind, but added: "The best way not to make a deal is to pop off about it ahead of time."

Asked whether there is any player on the Tribe roster he absolutely will not trade, Lane replied "Herb Score."

The young southpaw was hit in the eye by a line drive in a game with the New York Yankees here last May 7 and was out the remainder of the season.

Lane, 61, has a reputation as a shrewd trader of baseball talent. He was given a free hand in rebuilding the Indians into a pennant contender when he accepted a three-year contract.

'INDUSTRY MISSING BOAT IN NOT PROMOTING MORE SPORTS'

McAuliffe Record Will Be Riding on McLelland

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—One of the legends of the prize ring was a dapper, banty-rooster of a man named Jack McAuliffe who, back in the gay '90s, ruled the lightweights for 12 years and retired without ever losing a fight.

He was full of the wit and temper and generosity of the Irish. As those from the old sod will tell you, it should be with a man from Cork.

And the generosity still was in him after he retired, even though by now he wasn't holding much in the way of the folding.

Thus there came a day when he walked into his brother's Brooklyn saloon, waved one chamois-gloved hand to the assemblage and, rapping on the bar for his brother to "set 'em up for the house."

Smiling gaily, he patted his little nephew, Jack, on the shoulder and again ordered his brother to "set 'em up for the house."

"Now, Jack," said the brother who was footing the bill, "why don't you let some of the other boys buy once in a while?"

The former lightweight king turned white. Glaring at his brother, he seized his Malacca cane off the bar and pointed to the glittering gold letters on the saloon window which proclaimed "McAuliffe."

"And who's name are you using on this place?" Jack angrily demanded of his amazed brother.

That was "The McAuliffe." Yet today there is still another placed high in the sports world, the little nephew who was his namesake.

"The McAuliffe" of today at 66 is a dapper, banty-rooster of a man, too, filled with the wit and generosity of the Irish. He also has his share of physical talent, winning a place on the 1912 Olympic swimming team. Jack didn't compete because, at that time, he too, lacked the folding.

Going nowhere as a certified public accountant, he did something about it.

"A few friends put up some money," he recalls. "I hooked an insurance policy and in 1916 I founded the Triangle Conduit and Cable Co."

It was "a financial romance" which today is a $100,000,000 a year business.

But "The McAuliffe" like his famous uncle, never could get very far away from sports.

He associated himself with Col. Cap Houston when they bought into the New York Yankees in 1916. And when Houston left after a series of disagreements with Jake Rupert, Jack stepped out of baseball, too.

Since then, golf, and more recently, horse racing, have been his outlets.

Jack puts on the National Mixed Foursome in itational, an alternate shot event which will attract 65 teams to Tequesta, Fla., Feb. 11-14. He also is the founder of the Triangle Round Robin for the women pros, which will be held in the Boston area in mid-June with all proceeds going to charity.

"Industry misses the boat in not promoting more sports," he holds. "As for me, I just like to do something for a game which has given me so much pleasure."

"The McAuliffe" has 14 head of horses in training and one of them is a $40,000 yearling named "McClendland" which Jack is hoping to take a shot at the 1959 Kentucky Derby.

Personally, I wouldn't bet right now that he won't win it, either. As they say in the fight mob, McAuliffe's have not had a loser yet.

MEET AMERKS TONIGHT

Cougars Convince Dopesters

League odds-makers are beginning to look at the Victoria Cougars as a probable threat for a playoff berth in the Western Hockey League Coast Division, even though they have won only two games in 13 starts so far this season.

Coach Pat Egan will have a full team dressed, for the first time since his arrival from Nelson, tonight when the Cats meet Seattle Americans in Seattle.

Frank Milne, sidelined Monday in Vancouver and expected to be absent from the line-up for at least two games, will be back in strip and Gordy Wilson returned Monday after a two-week layoff. It will be the first time Egan has dressed the 15 men now allowed on WHL rosters.

Cougars return home Saturday for a meeting with Vancouver Canucks, and will be trying for their first win against the present division leaders.

Egan has expressed his belief that the Cougars will be in the thick of the league race by the end of the month, and if they maintain their present pace, they could make his wish come true.

Moving with more confidence than they've shown all season, the Cougars picked up their second win Wednesday when they defeated New Westminster Royals 5-2, and will be going all out to make it two in a row tonight in Seattle.

Tickets for Saturday's game against the Canucks will be on sale all day Saturday in the Cougar office, in the Hudson's Bay, and at the Arena box office right up to the 8 p.m. game time.

I'LL BE BACK IN A WEEK CLAIMS DEMOTED GUMP

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Rangers of the National Hockey League Thursday sent goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley to Providence Reds of the American Hockey League.

Defenceman Ivan Irwin, who had been called up for a single game, was also returned to Providence with Worsley, who vowed, "I'll be back in a week."

The sending of Worsley to Providence was the aftermath of a leg injury as a result of which the Rangers called up goalie Marcel Paille from Providence. Since then Paille has played in six games, losing only one.

For their Saturday game in Montreal, the Rangers will call up defenceman John Hanna from Trois-Rivieres of the Quebec League.

BIONDA BATTLES

Bruins Ready To Make Move

By United Press
Boston Bruins, winners of two straight games for the first time since the first 10 days of the season, prepared today for a weekend home-and-home series with the Toronto Maple Leafs which could put them back into the thick of the National Hockey League race.

The Bruins have a big edge in the weekend schedule because first-place Montreal, minus the services of Maurice Richard, will be playing two games with second-place New York and third-place Chicago will be playing two games with last-place Detroit.

The Bruins took a firm grip on fourth place, one point behind Chicago, when they scored four goals in the first two periods Thursday night and went on to whip the Black Hawks, 5-2, at Boston.

nine games. It was Boston's third win in the last 11 contests.

Larry Regan and Real Chevrefils picked up two points each on a goal and an assist and Jerry Toppazzini and Vic Stasiuk scored the other two Boston goals. It was Toppazzini's tally at 12:14 of the second period while Chicago was short a man that proved to be the winning margin.

The Hawks didn't rack up a score until 16:21 of the second period when Nick Mickoski rapped a close-in shot over the leg of Don Simmons. Ted Lindsay got Chicago's other goal at 5:55 of the final period when he rapped home Eddie Litzenberger's rebound.

MACKELL INJURED

The crowd of 10,841 saw Boston defenceman Jack Bionda and Litzenberger tangle in a flare-up of tempers which almost boiled over when they went into the penalty box. Bionda drew four minutes' worth of penalties for an elbow check and roughing and the Chicago centre was called only for an elbow check.

Boston's Fleming Mackell sat out the third period because of a charley horse in his left thigh suffered during second period action.

U.S. College Grid Titles Laid on Line

NEW YORK (AP)—While unbeaten Oklahoma and twice-beaten Notre Dame have at it in Norman, Okla., Saturday in a tangle of intangibles such as the Sooners' 47-game winning string and Irish spirit and/or luck, here's what will be in store elsewhere in American college football:

At Houston, Texas A and M, unbeaten, untied and top-ranked nationally, faces Rice University and its last threat to its Southwest Conference title and a trip to the Cotton Bowl.

At Columbus, Ga., Auburn, another of the 80 unbeaten, tries for an 8-0 record against Georgia in what should prove another step toward the Southeastern Conference title. And with Auburn barred from bowl play, the winner of the Tennessee-Mississippi tussle likely will wind up representing the conference in the Sugar Bowl.

MID-AIR CHECK

A three-period body check by Billy Bucyk of the Regals may have cost the Flyers the services of Patty Ginnell for the season.

Ginnell, a rookie, tried to hurdle Bucyk and was caught in mid-air, falling heavily on the ice. He was taken to hospital.

Flyers' outshot-Saskatoon-St. Paul 36-29 but Regals' defence, led by Bob Christy and Rags Raglan, checked well, permitting few close-in drives.

Prystay gave Edmonton the lead when the first period was only 48 seconds old. He beat Dechenne cleanly on a pass-out by Lunde. Voss tied the count for the Regals at 11:25.

Prystay again gave Edmonton a 2-1 edge in the second, but goals by Willey and Voss wiped out the margin.

Colwill scored his first goal at the 19-second mark of the third period and added another at 11:46 to give Regals a 5-2 lead. Leswick cut the margin at 17:39.

JAPANESE PARLIAMENT PROBES BONUS REPORT

TOKYO (AP)—The role of baseball in Japanese universities was aired in Parliament Thursday amid talk of a record $69,000 bonus to a rookie third baseman.

Education Minister Toh Matsunaga was questioned before the education committee about reports that Rikkyo St. Paul's University star Shigeo Nagashima is getting the fattest bonus in Japanese major league history to sign with the Tokyo Yomiuri Giants.

Socialist Dietman Tadashi Kono criticized a trend toward giving good ballplayers priority in college entrance exams as well as employment.

The minister said there was no law to control bonuses to college stars turning pro but he would look into the question.

SPORTSCRIPT

BY ERNIE FEDORUK

The Grim Reaper was looking the other way—or else it might be that he happens to be a sports fan—when Jack Patrick was motorizing to Victoria and a football practice the other day.

The Nanaimo-to-Victoria trip has been something of a daily workout for the Oak Bay Drakes' coach, but Monday he missed his first practice when his English car somersaulted some 90 feet. And 30 yards is a good first down in any league.

But Patrick, who considers himself an extremely fortunate young man, will be able to play and coach his Drakes Sunday when they play Fort William Redskins in the western Canada intermediate football final. Now that he has had a taste of both, Jack prefers hard knocks on the gridiron to those received on the highway.

The 28-year-old playing coach didn't have to make that trip. It happens, however, that Patrick loves football. He studies and thinks about the game during most of his waking hours. It would be sacrilege, in Jack's opinion, to even think of missing a practice.

The fortunes of the Drakes fall and rise with Patrick, yet it is surprising to find that Victoria football fans, apart from those connected directly with the Oak Bay team, know very little about him. You can blame that on his quiet, unassuming ways.

Yet Jack Patrick, Vancouver-born and bred, is so highly regarded by his charges that one of them, Ken Higgs, has often declared that the Oak Bay pilot is "a better coach than Clem Crowe," a gentleman who holds down the coaching position with B.C. Lions.

Let the Lions Listen, Who Cares?

And Higgs doesn't mind telling the world, even though Lions' general manager Herb Capozzi had a chat with Ken last Saturday regarding a possible return to the B.C. professional team.

Higgs, a bashing-type fullback, could quite conceivably earn a berth with Lions next year, but that still doesn't stop him from picking his favorite coach.

"Crowe never did seem to get along with Canadian players," Higgs said. "At any rate, I think Patrick's a better coach. He knows the fundamentals better than Crowe . . . or Linscott (Lions' assistant coach) for that matter! Maybe it's because Crowe expects all players who try out with Lions to know the fundamentals."

End, defensive half and team manager Don Hendry also is riding high on the Patrick bandwagon. "I've learned more from Patrick in two seasons than I have in all my previous years playing football," he said.

"He certainly knows the game and, perhaps more important, he also knows how to handle the players. I've never known the Drakes to show as much spirit as they have this season."

Age Difference Doesn't Matter Here

And while Hendry failed to mention it, most of the Drakes are the same age, or older, than the coach. Under similar conditions, a host of other coaches have met their first griefs.

But Jack Patrick has his Drakes jumping when he tells them to jump. So don't be too surprised if they scalp the Redskins at the Lakehead Sunday and move into the Dominion final.

MIDWEEK MUMBLINGS: Find-of-the-year in Saskatchewan junior hockey circles, writes Regina Pat manager Del Wilson, is Terry Harper, a young defenceman from Nanaimo . . . Harper played in the Pat minor system as a bantam before moving to Nanaimo . . . he's making a big impression in the league that holds the Memorial Cup . . . and speaking of Prairie hockey, Wild Bill Hunter (you name the place, he's coached there!) is a regular Victoria visitor . . . the redhead "discovered" Warren Back when Bill was coaching in Medicine Hat . . . he gave up hockey two seasons ago to move into the investment business.

Football fans interested in the complete facts and figures on Western Interprovincial Football Union can obtain a copy of the statistics by sending one dollar to WIFU Statistics, 1944 Hamilton Street, Regina . . . still with football, the Los Angeles Times reported "Canadian Football Results" thusly: Regina 30, Saskatchewan 10 . . . it looks wrong . . . and the Vancouver paper has finally stopped placing Prince Albert in "the Alberta Junior League" . . . while Little Rock, Ark., seems to have fallen off the front pages, the football team at Central High, scene of all the integration hubbub, was enjoying a winning streak of 20 games after this season . . .

Ray Barry, one-time Calgary Stampeder hockey standout, who would still look good in any WHL sweater, is now coaching a junior team in the Cowtown . . . longest handles in the NHL belong to Eric Nesterenko and Ed Litzenberger . . . they happen to be linemen with Black Hawks . . . Herb Capozzi, who does the talking for B.C. Lions, sat in on last Saturday's Oak Bay-Surrey meeting at MacDonald Park . . . letter from a Regina friend reports that Frank Fletcher returned from a hunting trip and was walking down the street when someone told him he was through as Saskatchewan's football coach . . . it's a novel way of firing the coach . . .

Howie Meeker Hired As Maritimes Coach

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — Howie Meeker, former National Hockey League player, coach and manager, has been hired as hockey coach by the St. John's Stadium Commission, it was announced today in a brief press statement.

The commission said Meeker will take up his duties "very shortly." No salary details were given and it was not known when Meeker's contract will expire.

Meeker will assist about 18 teams of various classifications which play there. He will also conduct coaches' workshops, and generally try to improve hockey in the city.

NEW CAREER STARTS

Declining to play in minor leagues after being dropped by Toronto Maple Leafs of NHL, Sid Smith starts what he hopes will be new career as he signs as playing coach of Whitby Dunlops, who will represent Canada in world amateur tourney next year. ## Russians Insisted On Familiar Rules

By DICK BACON
MONTREAL (BUP) — Canadian hockey fans next Sunday may be seeing a preview of the world "amateur" hockey championships when Russia's Moscow Dynamos meet the Whitby Dunlops at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens to kickoff a seven-game Canadian tour.

The Dynamos, former world champions, are scheduled to arrive at Montreal's Dorval airport on Wednesday and proceed to Toronto the same night where they will stay until their first game. The Dynamos will represent Russia at the world championships in Oslo, Norway, next February, while the Dunlops will represent Canada.

The Russians will meet senior Ontario hockey association teams in Windsor, Kitchener, Sudbury, and Kingston and play two games against the Ottawa Junior Canadiens in Ottawa and Montreal.

The success of the first Russian hockey tour in Canada has already been assured. Maple Leaf Gardens sold out 45 minutes after tickets went on sale earlier this week, guaranteeing a gross rate of about $30,000.

The CAHA has guaranteed the 26-man Russian party all expenses once they land in Canada plus their air fare back home. Bob Lebel, CAHA president, estimated the total cost at "about $30,000" for the 20 days the Dynamos will be in Canada.

"They (the Russians) have offered us the same deal for next year," Lebel said.

No Canadian team has been selected yet to make a Russian tour in 1958, but the CAHA definitely plans to take advantage of the offer.

One aspect of the Russian tour that has evoked divided opinion among Canadian observers is the decision to play under international rules, rather than the rougher Canadian-style game.

"They insisted on playing international rules," Lebel said, "or they wouldn't come."

In contrast to the Canadian game, international rules forbid:

—Body checking except by a player in his own defensive zone.

—Boarding (running a player into the boards).

—Icing the puck by a short-handed team.

—Substitutions while play is in progress.

Officials consist of two referees instead of one referee and two linesmen.

Lebel also indicated that if the Whitby-Dunlops show up badly against the Dynamos, the CAHA will "definitely take steps to correct the situation" before the team leaves for Oslo and the world "amateur" hockey championships.

Bronco Gains In Point Race

Bronco Horvath and Fleming Mackell gained an assist apiece Thursday night as Boston Bruins nipped Chicago Blackhawks, 5-2, to break a four-way tie for sixth place in the National Hockey League scoring race.

Horvath's assist, added to his nine goals and five assists, gave him 15 points, tied with clubmate Mackell, who has scored five goals and assisted on 10 others. They had been tied with Tod Sloan of Toronto and Gordie Howe of Detroit.

It Could Happen Again Pop Reminds Esks' Fans

By CANADIAN PRESS

Frank (Pop) Ivy and Ray Prochaska weren't in Canada when it happened, but the memory of 1953 lingers with them as they prepare Edmonton Eskimos for the Western Interprovincial Football Union final against Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

"Trouble is with the people, they've already forgotten what happened in 1953," said Ivy, grimacing at any suggestion the 1957 series will be a walk-away for Edmonton.

It was four years ago that the favored Eskimos of Darrell Royal met Winnipeg in the best-of-three league final. They won the first game away, then lost two in a row at home.

Bombers won the deciding game 30-24 when with less than two minutes remaining, Dave Skrien intercepted a pass at the Winnipeg 10, ran it to the Edmonton 50, then lateraled to Tom Casey who scored the winning touchdown without a hand being laid on him.

"Memories are too short," said Ivy, who became head coach of the club in 1954 and who has won the Grey Cup title in each of the last three years.

"We've beaten the Bombers three times out of four," assistant coach Prochaska offered. "Well, they beat Calgary Stampers four times straight, then got the tar whaled out of them at Winnipeg last Saturday. Don't think it can't happen again."

Prochaska referred to the 13-13 draw between Bombers and Stampers in the first game of the total-points semifinal, won 28-16 by Winnipeg, and he made the remarks to point up the sincerity of his and Ivy's belief that the odds in the final are even.

FEW AGREE

Eskimos, winners of 14 of their 16 games during the schedule, are conceded the series in straight games by nearly every outside observer in the West. The betting odds favor Edmonton by about two touchdowns a game.

The first is scheduled at 6 p.m., PST, Saturday in Winnipeg. The second will be in Edmonton at 7:30 p.m. PST Wednesday and the third, if necessary, in Edmonton at the same time next Saturday.

Rookie coach Bud Grant of the Bombers, an offensive end with that 1953 Winnipeg squad, hasn't made any predictions on the outcome, but when his club upended Stampers 15-3 Monday, he said Bombers were "out of the frying pan into the fire."

He must face the fire with a string of injuries that will keep import end Frank Gilliam out of action and slow down such stars as halfback Leo Lewis and fullback Gerry James. Lewis missed the semifinal round with pulled knee ligaments, but now is running and will be dressed Saturday night.

Ivy and Prochaska, observers at both semifinals games, say Calgary must have bruised up the Bombers in the hard-knocking football they played, but they don't figure that will give them much of an advantage.

"We've got just as many injuries as they have," said Ivy.

GUY WANTS TOP FIELD TO FACE SWOON'S SON

BALTIMORE (AP)—E. Guy Drake of Lexington, Ky., accepted Thursday the first invitation to the Pimlico Special on Nov. 30 for his Swoon's Son and hoped it could turn out to be a final race for "horse of the year" ballots.

The mile and three-sixteenths race would have to draw either Bold Ruler, Gallant Man or Dedicate for such an opportunity.

And it appears unlikely at this time. Swoon's Son has won seven major races this year and is the seventh-highest money winner of all time with $766,905.

Green Pastures Beckon 92 B.C. Thoroughbreds

The Vancouver Thoroughbred Association has listed 92 horses that will be barred from major B.C. tracks next season unless they receive veterinary approval that they are "in sound condition and fit for racing."

An additional 23 horses, the Association said, were voluntarily retired by their owners and do not appear on the list.

The Association also added that horses appearing on the Prairie Thoroughbred Breeders and Racing Association barred list will not be granted stall space at "any track under jurisdiction of the Vancouver Thoroughbred Association Limited." The tracks are Sandown, located at Sidney, and Lansdowne and Exhibition Park.

One of the reasons for issuing the barred list this week is because of the seventh annual B.C. Breeders Society sale at the PNE grounds in Vancouver Saturday, starting at 1:30 p.m.

Application for re-instatement must be received on or before Dec. 10 and must be accompanied by a veterinarian's certificate stating that the horse is in sound condition and fit for racing.

List of barred horses:

Hong Kong Held Futile Sacrifice Of Canadian Men

LONDON (Reuters)—An official war history published Thursday says the dispatch of two battalions of Canadian troops to Hong Kong three weeks before the Japanese attacked Britain's Brown colony proved to be "a lamentable waste of valuable manpower."

The few extra days of resistance against invading Japanese forces by Canadian reinforcements had no effect on the course of events, says the book, which was written by a panel of three army officers, an air request from the British government and a naval officer.

Canadians Met Enemy on Mainland

The Japanese attack on Hong Kong began Dec. 8. Three days later, the first Canadian troops—"D" company of the Winnipeg Grenadiers—made contact with the enemy on the mainland opposite Hong Kong island.

The war history adds: After two more days of heavy fighting against the Japanese, all troops were pulled out of the mainland and ferried across to the island.

After 17½ days of heavy fighting, with water and ammunition running short, the colony surrendered on Christmas Day, 1941.

Canadian losses were heavy. A total of 23 officers and 257 other ranks were killed or died of wounds—including a number murdered by the Japanese shortly after their capture.

Of the 1,973 men who went to Hong Kong, 555 never returned to Canada.

The British war history reaches the same conclusions on the Hong Kong expedition as were made by Col. C. P. Stacey, the Canadian Army's official historian.

Disunity Caused Far East War

LONDON (Reuters)—Concerted allied action could have curbed and prevented the Far East war, an official British history said Thursday night.

It said that Japan's lightning attack and conquest of British-held territory in southeast Asia was as much of a surprise to London as the Pearl Harbor attack was to Washington.

The first volume of Britain's part in the Far East phase of the war was written by five British army, navy and RAF officers.

It said "many tragic blunders" led to Japan's conquest, starting with the invasion of Manchuria in 1931 and the full-scale invasion of China six years later.

The 568-page volume blamed lack of unity among the U.S., British, Dutch and French governments for the steady Japanese advance.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN

"On more than one occasion, concerted action on the part of these powers might well have prevented the war," it said. "The story is one of 'might have been'."

Within three months after Pearl Harbor, the history said, the allied Far East fleet had been destroyed and Japan had swept through Malaya, Singapore and the Dutch East Indies.

This had given the Japanese possession of all the resources of that rich southern area for which they had gone to war," it said.

One of the most revealing sections of the history said that British officials in the Far East misjudged both Japan's intentions and military power.

LITTLE TO FEAR

"Indeed, those who told the truth were often regarded as pro-Japanese and defeatists," the book said. "Whatever the reasons, the opinion was general there was little to fear from the Japanese armed forces."

It said the "generally held belief" was that Japanese made poor airmen incapable of a bold air strike. The expert Japanese high-level bombing raids and low-level attacks, it said, came as "a revelation."

The British garrison in Hong Kong "firmly believed that Germans must be leading the sorties," the book said.

Hong Kong itself, it said, was an "unsatisfactory commitment" with no strategic importance for the allies.

"It could have been demilitarized in the early 1930s without loss of face, but such a course was not thought to be politically advisable."

Referring to the U.S. attitude toward Japan's aims of expansion, the book said:

"Although by December, 1940, the president, Franklin D. Roosevelt and his advisers had been clearly informed that their country must sooner or later be drawn into the war, they could not act so far in advance of public opinion."

"For 20 years the American people had been allowed to believe that they could remain in isolation and that no power would dare to attack or threaten them. The president could lead only as far as Congress would go."

Commonwealth losses during the Far Eastern campaigns were about 166,500, including 130,000 prisoners. The Japanese suffered some 15,000 casualties.

"Never before in the course of British history had such a large force capitulated, and the fall of Singapore came as a terrific shock to the British Commonwealth and to all who had the cause of the Allies at heart."

But the book said that the huge naval base was doomed before the war started. The Japanese calculated they could capture it in 100 days and beat their estimate by about 30 days.

FAMED REBEL MP DIES IN EAST

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP) — William Folger Nickle, 88, stormy figure in Canadian politics after the First World War, died in hospital today.

Twice he broke with the Conservative party. In 1926 he resigned as Ontario attorney-general over the liquor policy of the late premier Howard Ferguson.

In 1919, he resigned as member for Kingston in the federal House of Commons, contending that the Union government elected in 1917 should resign and seek a post-war mandate from the electorate.

His son, W. M. Nickle, is Progressive Conservative member of the Ontario legislature for Kingston and Ontario minister of planning and development.

While sitting as federal member for Kingston, from 1911 to 1919, Mr. Nickle led a successful fight against granting of titles to Canadians.

All-Out Drive On Lord's Day Violations

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver police commission has instructed the police department to investigate suspected breaches of the Lord's Day Act "in the same manner and to the same extent as a breach of any other statute."

Such evidence will then be placed before Attorney-General Robert Bonner, who has the power under the act to decide whether a flat allowing prosecution will be granted.

The commission took unanimous action Thursday on the contentious "Blue Law" question after turning down an earlier resolution which would have promoted specific investigation of radio stations and the Vancouver Symphony.

There were other issues which emerged during the lengthy debate on the Lord's Day Act.

The attorney-general has declined to grant a fiat which would clear the way for prosecution of the Stanley Park pitch and putt golf course.

Billiard hall operators served notice they would stay open next Sunday.

Acting mayor George Cunningham pressed for action to repeal the ancient Sunday Observances Act.

Philip, Lord Altrincham Praised for Palace Change

LONDON (Reuters) — Prince Philip and Lord Altrincham were heaped with praise by the British press today as the main forces behind ending the presentations of debutantes to the Queen.

Philip and the crusading peer who blasted royalty may have broken the hearts of thousands of society girls, but they are the darlings of the newspapers.

It was announced Thursday that the presentation ceremonies—where the girls briefly met the Queen—will be scrapped. Instead more Buckingham Palace Garden parties will be held where the young debs will have to rub shoulders with hundreds of other guests.

Last year more than 400 Canadians were among those invited to garden parties at the palace and 44 Canadians made their curtsies before the Queen.

The Daily Mail says Philip was a main force behind the move since he is "eager to see the monarchy brought thoroughly into line with the realism of the 1950s."

Within a week of their 10th wedding anniversary, The Daily Sketch says, Philip has "notched a big victory in his personal campaign to simplify court life."

All of the papers note that Altrincham made the presentation parties one of his main charges in his blast against the monarchy. He claimed they pandered to snobbishness and gave the Queen the "appearance of standing at the apex of an aristocratic and plutocratic pyramid."

The Times says the "abandonment of a custom that has

Liberals, Tories Get Even Break

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Liberal-Progressives and Progressive Conservatives earned an even break Thursday in provincial by-elections in two rural Manitoba ridings, leaving House standings unchanged and providing few clues to trends for upcoming general elections. Both were two-way battles.

Freud's Son in Dark
LONDON (AP)—A son of the late Sigmund Freud, who revolutionized the Western world's thinking about sex, says the subject was never mentioned in their house. "I didn't know the full facts of life until I was 17," said Martin Freud, 68, who runs a tobacco shop.

Emerson had been held by an Independent Liberal-Progressive who sat with the government until he resigned on being appointed to the bench. Manitou-Morden has been a Conservative seat for 20 years.

Standing in the legislature now is: Liberal-Progressives 35, Progressive Conservative 11, CCF 5, Social Credit 1, Independent 3, Independent Conservative 1, Labor Progressive 1. Total 57.

COMPLETE RESULTS

Complete results gave Mr. Ridley 2,340 votes and Mr. Lumgair 1,057. About 62 per cent of the 5,497 eligible voters cast ballots, compared with 67 per cent in the 1953 provincial election.

In Emerson, when counting ended for the night with 30 of 32 polls heard from, results gave Mr. Tanchak 2,170 votes and Mr. Casper 1,998. About 68 per cent of 5,362 voted, compared with 83.4 per cent in 1953.

only "PRESTONE" BRAND ANTI-FREEZE has all the protective power your engine needs

You're wise to listen to your garage or service station man when he recommends "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze. He gets the full picture of today's cars—realizes fully how more powerful engines make more demands on cooling systems—sees what it means in costly repairs if the least thing goes wrong. He knows that in addition to the freeze-up protection anti-freeze gives you, your car needs the complete Winter protection that only "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze provides.

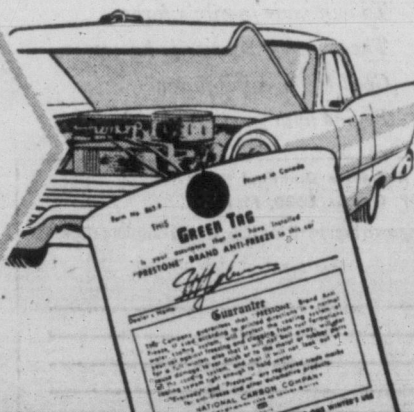

Trouble-free Winter driving depends on nothing stopping the flow of anti-freeze through the cooling system. With "Prestone" Brand, Anti-Freeze nothing will. No particles of rust will clog it... no corrosion to cause leaks... no deterioration to impair the efficiency of the water pump. Special inhibitors end all these risks—plus a unique Polar Film which coats every part of the cooling system, seals it against rust and corrosion. And a special anti-foaming ingredient makes sure that the anti-freeze will not foam out of the top of the radiator.

So insist on "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze—the sure way to trouble-free Winter driving.

LOOK HERE...

There's only one way to be sure that you have "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze in your radiator. Look under the hood for the guarantee tag. If it's not there, ask why not. There's only one "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze. Insist on it... and you can get it... anywhere.

FBI Raids Gang Meeting, Hold 63 Known 'Hoods'

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (UP)—Federal agents and state police Thursday staged a roundup of nationally known racketeers holding a mysterious meeting at a $110,000 mountain hide-away.

The surprise raid netted a total of 63 known "hoods and racketeers" from New York City, California, Texas, New Jersey and Puerto Rico.

MURDER INC.

Foremost of them was Vito Genovese, a close associate of the late Albert Anastasia, reputed "lord high executioner" of Murder Inc. Anastasia recently died in a hail of gangland bullets while sitting in a chair in a midtown New York barber shop.

Authorities said Genovese, of Atlantic Highlands, N.J., was "connected with every known sort of racketeering, from waterfront to Murder Inc., and many in between."

NO CHARGES LAID

Those caught in the trap were picked up "for questioning," police said. No charges had been placed.

"We haven't a thing on them," said Sgt. Edgar Crosswell of the state police-bureau of criminal investigation. "But we made it clear we wanted them out of the area."

"We broke up the meeting because we were convinced it was being held for an unlawful purpose," he said. "They're all hoodlums; there's no doubt about it."

The roundup began when authorities noticed an unprecedented influx of tough-looking characters driving fancy black limousines in the small town of Apalachin, with a population of less than 300. The oldest car belonging to those caught up by the raid was a 1956 Cadillac.

The "hoods" were found holding their conclave at the mansion of Joseph Barbera, head of a beverage distributing company in nearby Endicott.

A-G Hands Over Sommer's Report

An RCMP report on charges against former forests minister Robert Sommer has been turned over to Stanley Remnant, counsel for the Royal Commission investigating charges that the former minister accepted bribes.

LIBRARY DELINQUENTS GIVEN BREAK

TORONTO (CP)—The Toronto public library has declared a day of amnesty for all delinquent book borrowers.

Chief librarian Henry C. Campbell said today boxes will be placed outside all libraries Dec. 11 after closing time and no questions will be asked of those who return overdue books.

From next Jan. 1, a collection agency will begin rounding up missing books, he said. In the last two years, 8,302 books were not returned.

The report has been under guard in Mr. Remnant's office for two days, it was learned Thursday.

Attorney-General Robert Bonner confirmed that he turned it over to Mr. Remnant in accordance with a promise he made last weekend.

6-MONTH PROBE

The report was compiled by RCMP Insp. W. J. Butler after a six-month investigation in 1956 into accusations against Mr. Sommer.

It will be available to Mr. Remnant for private use in studying aspects of the investigation before the Royal Commission resumes its sessions Dec. 9.

Mr. Bonner has emphasized that the report will never be made public.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S POSITION

in world trade will be the subject of a talk by Attorney-General Robert Bonner next Tuesday at 6 p.m. when he addresses the Victoria chapter of the National Office Management Association at a dinner in the Pacific Club. Mr. Bonner recently returned from an overseas trade mission in Europe.

Mother of 3 Hanged Tots Sent to Mental Hospital

TORONTO (CP)—Crown Attorney W. O. Gibson said Thursday Mrs. Maureen O'Donohue, 27, has been committed to the Ontario Mental Hospital at Whitby.

Mrs. O'Donohue was arrested Monday after her four children were found hanging in the basement of their suburban Leaside home. Three were dead.

She will remain in the hospital until declared fit to stand trial, Mr. Gibson said. She has been charged with murder.

The fourth child, Mary Josephine, six months, has recovered.

ST. HYACINTHE, Que. (CP)—A coroner's jury Thursday night held Mrs. Julien Gorka criminally responsible for the deaths of her three young children, found bludgeoned Monday.

The 36-year-old farmer's wife is expected to be arraigned within the next few days, when a date for a preliminary examination is likely to be set.

Sgt. Gagne said neighbors remarked Mrs. Gorka was tired and depressed; and had been released recently from mental hospital.

TRUMAN SAYS ADLAI STILL CONSIDERS IKE'S INVITATION

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry Truman said today Adlai Stevenson apparently plans further conversations before deciding on an offer to become an Eisenhower administration consultant at a North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting in Paris next month.

Truman did not amplify and gave no further details of the talk with Stevenson.

FAMED STALLION OFF TO SALES

Big blow to Vancouver Island's standing as a thoroughbred breeding centre was the departure today of Grey Skies, only son of the great sire Mahmoud at stud in western Canada. Property of the estate of the late J. J. Ross, Grey Skies is seen stepping into a van to be shipped by Fred Ball to Vancouver for the thoroughbred sales there Saturday. He sired winners of 48 races on B.C. tracks this year to lead the field, and he has many saddlehorse offspring here. (Times Photo by Irving Strickland.)

MONTE ROBERTS

Reporting on B.C. Centennial activities, a newspaper (not this one) produced this intriguing paragraph:

"Victoria and Vancouver Symphony Orchestras will tour the province as will treasured historical relics and Mart Kenney and his Western Gentlemen."

I must see that Mart receives a clipping of this item. I know he will be delighted to learn he is a historical relic, and a treasured one, at that.

Why, the very idea! Mart Kenney is still a young man. I should know. We went to different schools together. And it used to be my great pleasure to dance every dance when Mart and his men played the Spanish Grill in the old Hotel Vancouver.

Not the present Hotel Vancouver, with its flamboyant decorations, but the old, mellowed hotel.

I can remember when they raised the price for the supper dance to $3 per couple, and how indignant we all were, although the price included dancing and a nourishing supper, with waiters asking if you'd like more coffee.

And the pint of gin under the table cost 85 cents, and everybody used to say this was a crime, because most of the price was for taxes.

What am I saying? Good heavens, Mart MUST be a historical relic.

While we are delving into the past, you might like to know exactly what constitutes a pioneer.

The Centennial committee has produced scrolls of honor to be issued to B.C. pioneers.

And, in its usual thorough fashion, the committee has also produced a definition of "pioneers."

In fact, THREE definitions.

Pioneer No. 1 (should we say Pioneer First Class) is a man or woman who resided in B.C. before the province became part of Canada on July 20, 1871.

Pioneer Second Class is a person who lived here before the first regular trans-continental train reached the Pacific Coast, July 4, 1886.

Pioneer Third Class is for those who didn't live here at either of those periods, but who "merit recognition for their contribution to the development of their communities."

I am putting in an application for Pioneer First Class.

My application is based on the saying, "You're only as old as you feel."

New Evidence Aired In Deportation Case

The U.S. Court of Appeals has taken under submission the plea of Victoria-born Mrs. Hazel Anna Wolf, 59, of Seattle, for a new court hearing on an order for her deportation to Canada.

Deportation proceedings were instituted against Mrs. Wolf May 31, 1949, on the grounds she was an alien and Communist party member.

Mrs. Wolf claimed new evidence would permit her to prove that although born in U.S., she had a right of U.S. citizenship through her mother who was American but married

About 70 workers facing unemployment with termination of the B.C. Electric underground wiring project in downtown Victoria next month, likely will be absorbed by new company projects early in the new year.

Mayor Percy Scurrell announced the company plans to compensate for the one-year suspension in the downtown project by "moving ahead other capital expansion jobs slated for next year."

CITY BACKS LABOR'S PLEA

City council Thursday endorsed a Victoria Labor Council resolution on unemployment to be sent to the provincial and federal governments.

The resolution calls for prompt inauguration of comprehensive public works programs to alleviate growing unemployment conditions in the area.

Saanich health department has completed inoculation of essential workers with flu vaccine, it was reported today. The vaccine was delayed in reaching the health unit. Health authorities feel a second wave of flu is possible but at the same time report school attendance is normal for this time of year. Dr. Elizabeth Mahaffy of the Victoria-Esquamalt Union Board of Health said she detected a tendency for the ailment to move recently from the children to the working adults. She was unable to estimate absenteeism.

The Knights and Dames of the Thistle will hold a meeting in Norway House tonight at 8.

Thirty employees of Greater Victoria Water District have asked reopening of their wage contract. It expires December 31. The workers are members of the Municipal Employees' Union, (Federal Union 598).

Meeting is set for City Hall council chambers Tuesday at 2 p.m. Anyone interested was asked to attend. Council parks committee meets at 10 a.m. Tuesday and finance committee at 10 a.m. next Friday. Parks committee is slated to meet at 7.30 p.m. Tuesday, November 26.

Pleading guilty to stealing $2 from a milk bottle, Alfred Stanley Carson, 18, Sooke, was given a six months suspended sentence in city police court today. He must also put up a $500 bond for good behaviour.

High Hopes For Visit By Eisenhower

B.C.'s Centennial Committee has high hopes that President Dwight D. Eisenhower of the United States, as well as Princess Margaret, will be a distinguished guest during the centenary year.

R. A. Pennington, deputy Provincial Secretary, told a meeting of the general committee in Vancouver Thursday that the president had been invited to "come to B.C. at any time during 1958—with a broad hint that he might come in time to open the Pacific National Exhibition."

Victoria Mayor Percy Scurrell said today President Eisenhower would "certainly" be invited to visit Victoria if he comes to B.C.

OPEN SECRET

Although official acceptance from Princess Margaret has not been received, it is an open secret that she most likely will represent the Queen of Canada here during the 1958 celebrations.

The unofficial hope is that she will be in B.C. during Navy Week, tentatively slated for July 24 to July 31.

The RCN is expected to announce plans for Navy Week, one of the outstanding functions of the year, in the near future. But full details of the navy's participation are likely to hinge on official notice of the Princess Margaret visit.

35 SHIPS

Invitations have been sent through the external affairs department to other Commonwealth nations and the United States to have warships visit B.C. waters during Navy Week.

A total of as many as 35 ships from other countries may visit various B.C. ports at that time.

The visiting contingent to Victoria would moor in the Royal Roads anchorage, off the entrance to Esquimalt Harbor.

Among other events under discussion for Navy Week are "open house" days for all ships and shore establishments of the Pacific Command.

Acceptance on general terms of the invitation to send ships has been received by the British Admiralty.

It was announced at the centennial committee meeting Thursday that invitations have also been sent to President Rafael Cortines of Mexico, Commonwealth premiers, provincial premiers, and the governors of several states of the U.S.A.

Saanich Dairyman Named B.C.'s Top Potato Grower

John P. Pendray, dairy farmer at 4160 Blenkinsop Road, who grows a few potatoes on the side, was chosen grand champion B.C. potato grower Thursday at Burnaby.

He was named to the honor at the first annual B.C. potato industry conference, a one-day affair.

Chief speaker was Alex Hope, chairman of the B.C. coast vegetable marketing board, who said B.C. must import 25,000 tons of potatoes annually because of high costs here.

34 METERS DAMAGED BY THIEVES

$15 Stolen In Two Days

Police today were searching for clues which might lead to the arrest of thieves who smashed and robbed 34 parking meters in the downtown area in the past two days.

Damage to the parking meters is estimated at $170. The thieves netted about $15 in nickels and pennies.

City police said a screwdriver or similar tool was used to pry the locks open.

The main raid on the meters took place Thursday night, when a total of 26 meters were broken into on Fort Street, two on Broughton, two on Langley and two on Yates. On Wednesday night eight others were robbed.

ALL REPAIRED

All meters were repaired today by the city engineering department, traffic division.

Traffic engineer Norman Worsley said the loss in money was not great, but the damage to the meters was high, about $3 a meter.

"An average meter collects about 30 cents a day," he said. The meters are emptied about three times a week. So we don't consider we have lost much money, but from a damage point of view it is costly."

BENNETT HASN'T SEEN SOMMERS

Premier Bennett replied with an emphatic "no" today when asked if he had seen former lands and forests minister Robert Sommers, who returned to his home here last Wednesday after several months of seclusion.

The premier did not discuss the matter further.

2 Announce Candidacy In Esquimalt

Former Esquimalt councillor G. K. Sammon today joined former reeve Magistrate A. I. "Bert" Thomas, in announcing candidacy in Esquimalt municipal elections.

Mr. Sammon will run for council. Magistrate Thomas will contest the reeveship, now held by Reeve A. C. Wurtele.

Magistrate Thomas announced his candidacy Thursday night and assured a two-way contest for the post of reeve. He was reeve from 1947 to 1951.

Reeve Wurtele is asking reelection for a third two-year term.

SHOULD BE ELECTED

Mr. Sammon, Esquimalt's delegate on the Centennial Committee of Greater Victoria and chairman of the Victoria-Esquamalt Union Board of Health, said his position on these intermunicipal boards should be held by an elected representative.

He said: "I feel I would be better able to express the feelings of the municipality on these boards if I were back on council."

Mr. Sammon was councillor from 1953 to 1956.

TRAFFIC FINES

In city police court today: William Gibson Harrison, 2538 Quadra, $35 and licence suspension; Alex Roshenko, RR. No. 1, $35 and licence suspension; both for careless driving.

Wayne Eric Doleman, RCN, fined $50 for driving under suspension, and $15 for having inadequate brakes.

MAKING HIS FIRST APPEARANCE

Dec. 12 Group Backs Ash Re-Election

Saanich Reeve Arthur Ash was voted full support by 36 members of the December 12th Group who turned out to a meeting in St. Luke's community hall Thursday night.

"We decided to support his bid for re-election because of his outstanding work despite being outnumbered on council," Charles Nelles, chairman of the meeting said today.

The December 12th Group, formed four months ago by about 60 Saanich voters, has the objectives of finding candidates for council and increasing the voting turnout at the civic election next month.

HEAVIER VOTE

Mr. Nelles, himself a candidate for council, said the turnout indicated there would be a heavier vote than usual.

The meeting called for continued discussions on location and financing of a joint Victoria-Saanich municipal hall "but in the interim suggested that Saanich should build temporary municipal office quarters that could be used later for a public works or health building," Mr. Nelles said.

Sub-committees on candidates, platform, contributions and election campaigning were instructed to make reports at the group's next meeting, expected in less than two weeks.

NAVAL SHIP MOVEMENTS

Sussexvale, Stettler return Nov. 27.

Jonquiere returns Nov. 22.

13 New Engineers to Join Association Here Nov. 27

Thirteen new professional engineers from Greater Victoria will receive membership in the Association of Professional Engineers of B.C. at a meeting of the Victoria branch Wednesday, Nov. 27, in the Pacific Club at 8 p.m.

Association president Professor W. O. Richmond will present membership certificates. W. A. Bowman, Victoria branch chairman, will chair the meeting.

Eligible to receive membership certificates are: C. O. Brawner, 1343 Finlayson; J. F. Glennie, Fraser River Board, 609 Broughton; J. M. Jacobsen, Brentwood Bay; N. W. Life, Saanich engineer, 2823 Colquitz; R. G. Foxall, B.C. Power Commission, Victoria; J. L. Motherwell, 1465 Fort; G. C. Stewart, 1544 Burton.

Vendors Worst Offenders Scurrah Advised by Chief

Government liquor stores are worst offenders in the sale of beer and liquor to juveniles, according to repeated reports to Mayor Percy Scurrell.

The mayor, who opened a probe into liquor traffic among juveniles this week, said district police and private informants say most of liquor supplied youngsters is sold over store counters.

The mayor will recommend a tightening of regulations in a letter to the Liquor Control Board, he stated.

"There should be strict enforcement of a regulation requiring clerks to ask proof of age from any customer of doubtful years," said the mayor.

Mayor Scurrell said he has received a great many confidential tips since appealing for public aid in halting sales of intoxicants to minors.

"I have also had a great many calls from parents, all of them very disturbed, many of them with sad experiences to relate concerning their own youngsters and liquor."

The mayor added the traffic with youngsters appears far more serious than he had thought.

WILLIAM HAMILTON

Commissioner Sure to Get Another Term

Appointment of Victoria police commissioner William Hamilton to another two-year term in office appeared certain at City Hall today.

Word was received from government sources that the B.C. cabinet is prepared to accept and appoint the outgoing member of the commission.

Under the new Municipal Act there are no further elections for police commission. The mayor is automatically a member, one is appointed by the cabinet and one by city council, in alternate years.

AGREED TO SERVE

Mayor Percy Scurrell said he has "strongly urged" the appointment of Commissioner Hamilton. He said Commissioner Hamilton has agreed to serve if the appointment is made.

In view of the government suggestion for appointment of the outgoing member and the mayor's recommendation, there was little doubt the appointment will follow, city hall officials believed.

Commissioner Hamilton has served on the commission for six years, being re-elected twice. Gordon Carter is the third member of the commission. His term in office ends in December, 1958.

Sports Store Proprietor Dies at 73

Clarence Victor McConnell, 73, proprietor of Victoria Sporting Goods, died suddenly at midnight at his home, 3100 Fifth Street.

He had spent Thursday at his store, 1410 Douglas Street.

Mr. McConnell was born in Victoria, and was a charter member of Native Sons of Canada, member of the IOOF Lodge and a Mason.

Surviving are his widow, Pauline, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Walter Summerfeldt; two sons, Robert J. and Alfred E.; and two brothers, John H. and Frederick, all of Victoria.

Private funeral services will be held Monday noon at McCall's chapel, and will be followed by cremation. It has been requested that no flowers be sent.

Jonquiere Into Reserve After Refit

Another RCN frigate is scheduled to join the reserve fleet "mothballed" at Esquimalt harbor in the near future.

HMCS Jonquiere, now on exercises in coastal waters, will be paid off into reserve after annual refit.

She will be replaced in the Fourth Canadian Escort Squadron by HMCS New Waterford, now in final stages of modernization at Yarrow's Ltd.

It was previously announced that HMCS New Glasgow will go into reserve when her refit is completed this month.

Navy ships undergo refit before being paid off into reserve so they can be manned and put in action in the shortest possible time in the event of emergency.

Although it is not yet definite, either HMCS Sussexvale or HMCS Ste. Therese may be paid off when modernization is completed on HMCS Beacon Hill at Burrard Dry Dock Ltd., North Vancouver.

All ships mentioned are Prestonian Class frigates.

Baking for Christmas? Here Are Ingredients

By PENNY SAVER

Mother is in the kitchen! In the kitchen? What is she doing? Baking Christmas cakes. Christmas cakes!

Let's go and watch her. Oh, she's putting all sorts of scrumptious goodies into that big bowl. Things like almonds at 35 cents a package; walnuts at 42 cents a bag, and raisins and currants for 25 cents a package. (Between you and me, the price is a little higher if raisins or nuts are packed in cardboard boxes, so keep your eye open for cellophane!)

Something colorful and delicious just dropped into the bowl and I think it's candied peel. Might be wrong, but what's a Christmas cake without mixed fruit peel? Nothing. So get a package at 25 cents or 35 cents, according to size.

Here's something you'll not only need for everyday eating, but for all that Yuletide cooking you'll be doing. The something? Why, eggs of course. I know where they'll cost you a mere 75 cents. Other stores are selling at 80 to 85 cents.

Fresh chopped suet is necessary for those Christmas puddings and why not make them now and get it over with. With a busy festive season coming up, you won't want to give up parties and dates for the Christmas cooking! Suet is 25 cents for lump and 35 cents for chopped.

I've found a potato chip that's greaseless! It's low in calories and best of all, low in price. There are two types of these chips. One is plain and the other, wrinkled. They are wrinkled, for a reason. Makes them easier to hold on to at a party when you dip them into the various sauces on the table. Sounds slightly complicated, but who knows? You might be glad that the potato chips are wrinkled when you're wearing a good dress or suit at the next festivity. Small size 29 cents and large 59 cents.

Institute Marks 48th Anniversary

At a recent meeting of Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute, the president, Mrs. E. Butler, cut a birthday cake marking the 48th anniversary of the group. She also welcomed one of Sooke's oldest residents, Mrs. E. Noury, to the celebration.

Speaker was Mrs. A. H. Wakefield, a visitor from the Lake Country, in England. Her subject "English Scenes," was illustrated with color slides. She was introduced by the district president, Mrs. H. Woodward, and thanked by Mrs. A. W. Smith. Chairman was Mrs. E. Butler.

It was decided to hold the annual games night on November 23. A donation of $15 was made to a burned-out family in Sooke and a gift of canned salmon will again be sent to an institute in Colchester, England. Mrs. W. Cairns was named nominations convener.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I have started doing exercises for my waist but have given them up because I am tired of them, and would not have time as I am going to school. If I wore a waist cincher for a year or more would it take my waistline down four inches?"

A. Even if you had it tight enough to pinch you badly, I do not believe the result would be what you wish. This would be unhealthful and much more unpleasant than doing any number of exercises. You do not sound to me as though you gave the exercises a chance.

Q. "I just wondered if you could help me. I am 60 and in good health, but overweight. At night I use the best hormone creams and oils, yet my face has gotten so creepy it wears me. Do I need vitamins or green vegetables?"

A. Everyone needs vitamins and green vegetables. Sometimes extremely dry skin is due to a vitamin deficiency. The first thing is to eat a well-balanced vitamin-high diet. Then it might be wise to reinforce your diet with more vitamins. The green, leafy vegetables are an important part of your diet because of their vitamin and mineral content.

Health and nutrition are reflected in all of the tissues of the body and therefore do affect our complexions. Be careful about this. Ask your doctor about vitamins and keep on with the creams and oils.

Q. "Is it dangerous to tweeze hairs from the chin? I find that depilatories burn and chafe."

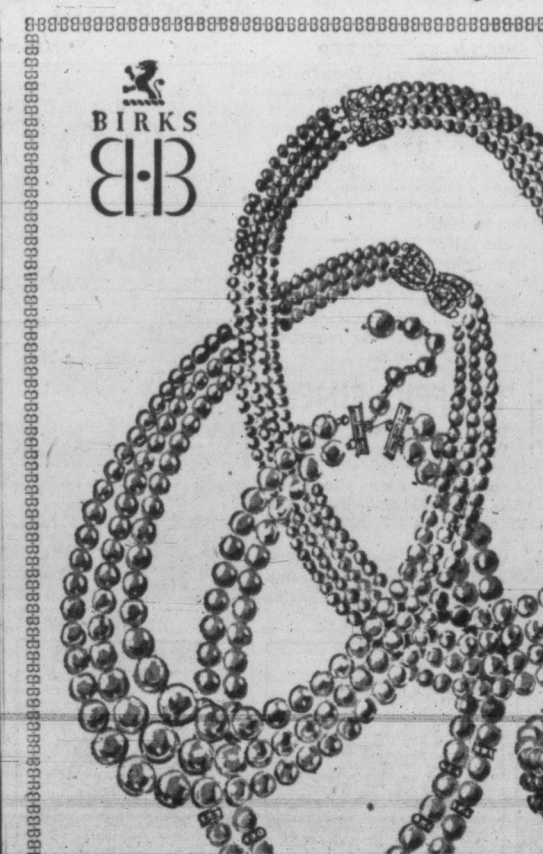

A. I cannot imagine why you thought it might be dangerous. Perhaps you were thinking that it might make the hair grow in thicker. There is no evidence this is so.

Q. "I would like a thicker browline but the hairs that have been tweezed come in stiff, and sometimes white, although I do not have grey hair. Can I soften them?"

A. I have recently mentioned in this column that you can sometimes hold the wild hairs in line by applying a touch of petroleum jelly. You also can widen the effect of your brows by using an eyebrow brush cleverly.

Q. "I am 5 feet 6 inches tall and weigh 142 pounds. My bust measures 35 inches, waist 27 1/2 and hips 41 1/2 inches. People tell me that I look wonderful, perhaps because I have lost 46 pounds since my second child was born. I think I could lose another 10 pounds. Do you think I'm right, and are my measurements really off?"

A. Congratulations on your loss. I know how much better you must look and feel. Do not lose another 10 pounds. That would make you underweight. You might lose another five if it would make you happier. Your hips are too large. Take hip-slimming exercises.

Winnipeg Club's 50th Anniversary

WINNIPEG (CP)—The first Women's Canadian Club to be formed in western Canada, a Winnipeg organization with a proud history of patriotic work and progress, celebrates its 50th anniversary today.

Several charter members, including eight who have held the office of president, will attend the anniversary, meeting and tea. The first woman secretary of state for Canada, Hon. Ellen Fairclough, will be the speaker.

Today, with Mrs. W. A. Trott as president, the membership totals more than 1,200. The club is a member of the Canadian Society which publishes rare Canadian historical material.

On Nov. 29, 1907, a group of 75 women first met in the Winnipeg YWCA "to consider the advisability of forming a Women's Canadian Club on the same lines as the Men's Canadian Clubs."

Organization was rapid and a week later Mrs. W. Sanford Evans was elected president. When the club held its inaugural luncheon there were 227 members. At the end of the year, there were 555 members.

The sixth annual report for the year 1916-17 showed a membership of 1,512, putting the club "well into the lead of women's clubs of any kind in Canada."

In 1927, president Mrs. John Bracken, wife of the then premier of Manitoba, reported a total membership of 2,544. In the years following, membership remained high, but never again reached the 1927 figure.

The purpose of the club is to foster patriotism by encouraging study of the institutions, history, arts, literature and resources of Canada, and by endeavoring to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the nation as may be desirable and expedient. Some of the projects of the club which has 14 meetings a year, undertaken during the years, included means to preserve the sun dials left by Sir John Franklin at northern Hudson's Bay Company posts on his last voyage; establishment of a committee to deal with the preservation of buffalo trails; erection of a tablet in old St. Andrew's Church on the Red River.

The club keeps a book in which speakers at the various meetings and distinguished visitors sign their names.

250 PAIR

Salts, Peppers Collection

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man. (CP) — Watch out when you say "please pass the salt" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Ek here.

They have a collection of 250 pairs of salt and pepper shakers, a display that would decorate any novelty store. It was started by Mr. Ek's mother 12 years ago, and was taken over by the couple in 1954.

A lot of them are from Portage and Winnipeg, but many come from other parts of Canada, the United States and abroad. And they are of all shapes and sizes. While most are of porcelain, glass, metal or wood, one set is hand made from 300-year-old Italian briar.

One set is made from cow bone, and a set made of British Columbia clay came from friends of the family living in Victoria.

BIG AND LITTLE

The oldest set—estimated to be 100 years old—is made of glass. The smallest set is three-quarters of an inch high. It comes from Nassau in the Bahamas. Others are six inches in height.

The shakers portray many things. The animal sets include horses, pigs, squirrels, cows, rabbits, dogs, cats, panda bears, frogs, kangaroos and camels. There also are lobsters and starfish.

Egypt, Syria Jordan Defence Pact Worthless Says Hussein

AMMAN, Jordan (Reuters)—King Hussein says the defence treaty Jordan signed with Egypt and Syria last February providing for subsidy payments to bolster the Jordanian economy "is not worth the paper it is written on."

The king delivered scathing indictments of the rulers of Egypt and Syria at a press conference Wednesday night on the eve of his 22nd birthday. He said they are "tools of international communism" whose attempts to overthrow him only served to unite the Jordan people.

Egyptian and Syrian newspapers and radios have recently stepped up their criticism of British-created Jordan.

Hussein claimed his enemies have tried to oust him from his throne since last April. They tried everything, including lies, rumors and money to foment trouble, he added.

In London The Daily Telegraph says that if Iraq and Saudi Arabia fail to rally to Hussein, Egypt and Syria will redouble their efforts to "fire" a revolution in Jordan.

"... if silence persists in both Baghdad and Riyadh, King Hussein's position must seem perilous indeed."

Col. C. F. Moe, UN chairman of the group said afterward that the group agreed both sides should comply with the UN armistice terms and settle differences by peaceful means.

The meeting was called at the request of both sides to discuss an incident Nov. 6. The Syrians charged Israeli troops fired on the Arab border village of To Nazir. Israel counter-charged that Syrian gunfire across the border killed an Israeli policeman.

Taximan Awarded $626 in Damages

A Victoria taxi operator who said he spent between 40 and 50 hours repairing his cab following an accident was awarded $626.64 damages in County Court Thursday.

He claimed for loss of earning time while repairing the taxi, his work as a mechanic, and the cost of spare parts purchased in Portland because, he said, they could not be obtained in Victoria.

The successful litigant was Darhl K. Errett, 832 North Park, whose taxi was in collision with a car driven by George R. Twyman at North Park and Blanshard June 19.

Judge J. B. Clearhugh found that Twyman was responsible for the accident and accepted Errett's estimate of loss sustained.

Errett said he owned only one taxi and this was so badly damaged he had to trade in his own private car for another taxi.

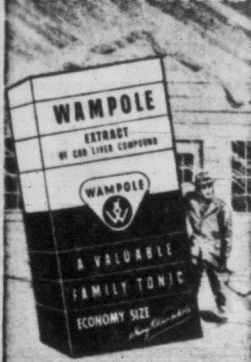

He then undertook repair of the damaged taxi in order to save garage costs.

"I had to go to Portland for spare parts which could not be obtained in Victoria," he said, "and I spent three days in Portland looking for them."

Claiming for loss of earning time while he was in Portland, Errett estimated the earning power of his taxi at from $20 to $25 a day net.

Discussing his own work on the taxi, he said the prevailing rate for mechanics in Victoria varied from $2 to $2.50 an hour. When asked how much it would have cost him to hire a car for his work, he replied: "I don't think anyone would rent a car for taxi service."

CALHOUN, Ga. (UP)—Strange red lights no longer flash over Calhoun.

Investigators found a prankster switching his red cellophane-covered automobile headlights on and off from a hilltop overlooking the town.

Young Firebugs Hit Mainland; Boy Held

VANCOUVER (CP)—Chief fire warden Louis Mulligan said Thursday more young firebugs are roaming through city streets and alleys than ever before in Vancouver's history.

He said the problem has risen to "serious proportions" and he has sought the help of juvenile authorities.

Chief Mulligan said he is also concerned by the fact that the age of the juvenile firebug now ranges from four to 14. In past years youths aged 13 to 15 were mainly responsible.

Within the last two weeks four firemen were almost killed in a fire started by a little boy. Two other boys aged eight and nine who admitted setting 14 fires in the last month are in custody while authorities study their case.

"The younger the children, the more dangerous the practice," Chief Mulligan said. "Children cannot appreciate the grave consequences that can result when they set a fire."

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—An 11-year-old boy appeared in police court Thursday on three charges of arson and was remanded, indefinitely for a psychiatric examination.

He was charged after investigation by city detectives and fire warden of three minor fires which broke out in apartment houses and a bakery in recent months.

NEWTON ABBOT, England (CP)—A year's supply of ice cream was won by Peter Petty, bridge in a photograph contest in this Devon town.

Royal Visit Film Here November 21

The first color film covering Queen Elizabeth's visit to Canada and her historic opening of Parliament will be shown at the Capitol Theatre, starting Thursday, Nov. 21.

Entitled "The Sceptre and the Mace," the National Film Board documentary first will be seen by about 75 persons, including Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross, Mayor Percy Scurrell, members of city council and other local dignitaries, at an invitational showing at the Capitol Monday morning at 9.

In addition to showing the Queen opening Parliament the film shows Her Majesty and Prince Philip walking in the gardens with Governor-General Vincent Massey, the drive from Rideau Hall to Parliament, and the royal reception. It also covers the significance behind the tradition of the House opening and the role of Elizabeth as Queen of Canada.

Honor for Author

J. G. ROBSON (centre), retired New Westminster lumberman, presents a cheque for $250,000 to the University of British Columbia Development Fund. Receiving the cheque are Dr.

A. E. (Dal) Grauer, chancellor of UBC (left), and Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, president. The gift is earmarked for new student residences.

Bruins Bear No Ill Will, Missiles Not Unbearable

ALMAGORDO, N.M. (AP)—There's a silly little jingle that goes like this: "Last night I saw upon the stair, 'A little man who wasn't there.' 'He wasn't there again today.' 'My gosh, I wish he'd go away!'"

And so to the story of the four bears and the little pig: Part of the public set-up a howl when it learned the Russians had sent a dog up in Sputnik II.

NO HEART

Some of the more indignant latched onto this thought: That's just like the Russians. They have no conception of individual freedom and now they show they have no heart.

Then came a shocking revelation. About two weeks ago it was learned a New York game farm was sending four bears to the U.S. Air Force missile development centre at Alamogordo. For use in experiments!

After the USAF explained about the bears, there was a report a pig had died in a demonstration. The story was that it had been fastened in a catapult-like sled and sent down a track to a violent stop such as a human might undergo in a head-on auto collision. It was to show auto-makers how safety devices can save lives in accidents.

An anxious young lieutenant chased after Col. Stapp to find out what to tell the public. Col. Stapp came back with the assurance, most of the risk was still being taken by men, although there was a bear in the act.

The public could relax again. There was no dead pig. Which lead to another jingle: "Last night I saw upon a sled, 'A little pig that wasn't dead.' 'He wasn't dead again today.' 'My gosh, I wish that he'd drop...'"

Young Firefighter Named Rotary's 'Youth of Month'

CHEMUNUS — Tommy Millard, 18, was named the Rotary Club's "Youth of the Month" at the club meeting this week.

President George Price noted that Tommy had been a member of the local volunteer fire department for three years, first as a junior fireman, and now as a full-fledged member of the brigade.

Tommy was also an outstanding soap box driver, winning many Island derbies. He was presented with a scroll and a pen.

Two new members, Bill Mainwaring and Ken Davidson, were welcomed to the club.

Appreciate Critics Music Students Told

TORONTO (CP)—The director of the Canada Council Thursday night told a graduating class of music students to "develop a proper understanding and appreciation of the function of criticism."

Dr. A. W. Trueman, who delivered the convocation address at the graduation exercises of the Royal Conservatory of Music, said:

"It appears to me that a desirable development in this country would be the rise of legitimate and mature criticism... we need professional critics of high standing in greater numbers and we need, of course, a developed discrimination on the part of the general public."

Referring to criticism of music in newspapers in Canada, Mr. Trueman said it falls into two extremes. He said:

"It is either so bashful and timid that it deals in nothing but praise or it is so ignorant and conceited that it deals in nothing but abuse, rather more of the former than the latter."

Fine of $15 For Grocer In Saanich

One of a number of Saanich grocers facing charges of selling goods after closing time was fined $15 in Saanich court Thursday.

McMorran's Cordova Bay Ltd. entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

All other charges were remanded to next week pending return of lawyer Jack Gatehouse, who is ill.

Ritualistic Slaying

BOMBAY (AP)—Police today accused a 15-year-old girl of leading six older female relatives in the ritualistic murder of her 45-year-old father and the subsequent cooking and eating of the victim's flesh. They had been studying witchcraft under an old woman, now dead.

Worker Drowns As Boat Flips In Dam Tunnel

CAMPBELL RIVER — Albert Arnason, 41, of Wil- low Point, drowned Thursday afternoon at the Upper Campbell Lake dam of the B.C. Power Commission when a small boat overturned.

Three other men in the boat were rescued.

The four men, employed by Dawson and Wade Ltd., had been making hydraulic checks of the conduit that will carry water through the dam to the power house.

According to reports, at quit- ting time all four climbed into a small outboard-powered boat to leave the tunnel, and the boat overturned.

All but Arnason grabbed the boat. His body was not re- covered for 20 minutes.

Attempts at artificial respiration were in vain.

FOR CENTENARY

$883 in Fund For Tofino Playground

TOFINO — Centennial com- mittee here has $883 on hand for construction of a children's playground, major centennial year project here.

Of this sum the village of Tofino gave $370, and the provincial government $243, representing 40 cents per capita.

Donations included in the balance of $270, now held in the local committee's bank account, are $50 from the ladies' auxiliary to Tofino Canadian Legion, $27 from Tofino PTA, $50 from a Tofino Badminton Club dance, and $20.85 from a special centennial bingo.

Plans are proceeding for celebrations in 1958, and one that promises to be of special interest will be a pageant staged by Chief Ambrose Ma- quinna and the Nootka Indians on the landing of Captain James Cook at Nootka Sound in 1778.

Chief Maquinna is a direct descendant of Chief Moka- wana, who met Captain Cook just a year before the famous navigator's death in the Hawa- lian Islands.

The Opitsat Indians also are planning celebrations, to in- clude pageants, war canoes, and Indian dances.

Legalized Ticket Draw Asked by Fair Parley

YOUTH ALSO JAILED

Two Men Get 4-Year Terms In $800 Theft

COURTENAY (CP) — Two men were sentenced here Thursday to four years in B.C. Penitentiary and a youth to 18 months in the young offenders' unit at Oakalla Prison for an $800 robbery last weekend.

Ward David Grauman, 21, ad- mitted breaking into Ogilvie Flour Mills Friday night when the premises were ransacked and the safe opened. Norman Paul Riel, 22, had entered a plea of not guilty in the robbery.

Eighteen-year-old Larry Lin- der changed an earlier plea of not guilty to one of guilty.

Grauman was given a second four-year term to run concur- rently with the first when he pleaded guilty to the theft of $117 from a Comox apartment block Oct. 30.

The men were picked up Fri- day by constables on routine patrol.

Irish elk, extinct for centu- ries, were a type of deer stand- ing six feet high with large antlers.

NANAIMO (CP) — Justice Minister Davie Fulton has been requested by the B.C. Fair Association to arrange legalization of draws for prizes, based on advance sale of tickets.

Association secretary L. W. Johnson said the annual meet- ing here Wednesday that Mr. Fulton has been asked to have the Criminal Code clarified, and to implement recommendations of the joint Senate and Com- mons committee on lotteries.

The justice minister is re- ported to have stated that the whole issue is under study.

HARD HIT

The Nanaimo meeting was told that the 64 exhibitions and fair groups within the fall fair board have been hard hit since the advance sale of fair ticket draws was declared illegal.

Association president H. W. German of Chilliwack said he understood Attorney General Robert Bonner favors a change in the federal law to give fairs a chance of ensuring 'rain in- surance' with advance ticket sales associated with some prizes.

Mr. German was re-elected

Priority to Provincial Needs, Says Fleming

BY VICTOR J. MACKIE
Times Ottawa Correspondent

OTTAWA — Hon. Donald Fleming, minister of finance, said Thursday in the Commons the principle of "recognizing the needs of the provinces" will be followed at the coming Dominion-Provincial conference.

Sleep Tonight

When a stuffed up nose keeps you awake at night, tossing and turning, won't let you sleep... put a few drops of Vicks Vapo-Nol in each nostril. Opens up your nose fast. You breathe again. And go back to sleep. Vapo-Nol keeps on relieving stuffiness... lets you breathe, for hours.

Just a few drops does it

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL NOSE DROPS

But he declined to commit the government to the principle of "equalization" as is now operative under the tax-sharing agreement.

The finance minister during his contribution to the Throne Speech debate turned his attention briefly to the coming Dominion-Provincial conference.

He said the new government had no intention of "laying down any cut and dried, hard and fast program and adopting towards the provinces a take it or leave it attitude."

He added, "that is not our method. We recognize the important responsibilities which the governments of the provinces bear and we shall, I hope, all of us, sit down to meet as Canadians to try to devise understandings that will be of benefit to all parts of Canada."

Hon. J. W. Pickersgill, former minister of citizenship and immigration, interjected, "can the minister assure the House the government has no intention of departing from the principle of equalization now existing in the arrangements with the provinces?"

Mr. Fleming replied, "the gentleman knows quite well what has been the position taken by this party and by its leader in this respect."

Mr. Pickersgill: "I do not."

Mr. Fleming: "If he needs a further reminder, it is on record. If he is not satisfied with that he will have ample opportunity to hear, during the opening proceedings anyway, a week from Monday what is said in that regard. The principle of recognizing the needs of the provinces will certainly be vindicated in a much more Canadian manner than was the case under the former government."

Mr. Pickersgill: "We shall see."

FLEMING HITS BACK

Threat of Inflation Checked, House Told

OTTAWA (CP) — Finance Minister Fleming said Thursday night that "the threat of inflation in Canada now has been checked."

In a Commons speech in which he hit repeatedly at the former Liberal government, he listed several factors which he said prove his contention.

Mr. Fleming said he is "still not satisfied" with these developments, but he gave no hint of possible further government moves.

The Bank of Canada interest rate had dropped four-tenths of a point in two months, falling below four per cent for the first time since last spring.

The rise in the consumer price index, which had continued for years under the Liberals, had been "checked," rising only one-tenth of a point in September.

OTTAWA (CP) — A prominent West Coast Liberal Thursday accused the Progressive Conservatives of seeking an opportunity for a snap election before carrying out promises to cut taxes.

Senator J. W. de B. Farris of British Columbia said in the Senate that Prime Minister Diefenbaker's government was elected on its promises to increase social security expenditures and to ease the tax burden.

However, he said, recent remarks by Senator John Haig, government leader in the Senate, and Solicitor-General Leon Balcer indicated the Conservatives wanted an election before they were in a position to reduce taxation.

"They were seeking an excuse to go to the country while they were spending the money and before they had approved how they were going to get it after they did spend it," Senator Farris said.

The Vancouver lawyer said Mr. Balcer stated in Toronto November 5 that the Conservative Party needed 40 more seats in the Commons and was "fighting an election campaign right now."

Mr. Balcer had indicated that a major effort would be made in Quebec. Wednesday, the speech from the throne at the opening of the Quebec legislature demanded more money for the Province of Quebec.

"Do you think that the Conservatives can get their 40 seats in Quebec unless they play ball with Duplessis, Premier Maurice Duplessis?" Senator Farris asked.

"... My guess is that the two are synchronizing."

Senator Farris also said Mr. Diefenbaker must be defeated on a Common vote before the could seek dissolution of Parliament and another election.

No prime minister had the right to demand an election simply because he did not like the complexion of the support he was receiving.

He described the Conservative government's policy as one new additional expenditure after another.

"If this can be done and taxes reduced at the same time I think we ought to keep this government forever," he quipped.

Parliament was entitled to know where the Conservatives proposed to get money to meet their new expenditures and cut taxes at the same time.

POOL NATO RESOURCES FOR SURVIVAL—PEARSON

NEW SESSION OF HOUSE PLANNED EARLY IN '58

OTTAWA (CP)—Works Minister Green today indicated the government aims to wind up the current session of Parliament before Christmas and call a new one early in the New Year.

In reply to Colin Cameron (CCF-Nanaimo), Mr. Green said "it was never the intention to have a regular session," which lasts from five to six months. "The work of the regular session will have to be done next year."

HOUSE OPENS JAN. 23

Bennett Blasts Short Money Talk

Next session of the B.C. Legislature will open Thursday, Jan. 23, at 3 p.m., Premier Bennett announced today.

"This follows the practice we started last year of giving the Leader of the Opposition time to study the Speech From the Throne over the weekend," he said.

The premier added that when the budget is brought down many people will "eat crow" over their statements that the government is in financial difficulties.

He said there was "absolutely no truth" to a report that about $6,500,000 in government cheques are being held back by the provincial treasury.

"This is just newspaper ballyhoo," he said.

NOT TOO FAR
Then with a broad grin the premier said:

"Of course I don't blame the press for starting these rumors ahead of the session—but don't go too far unless you want to eat crow at the next session."

The premier said he had compiled "a great fund" of newspaper editorials over the years "and some time I am going to have a lot of fun with them... You have to have a sense of humor in public life."

FALSE
He said that statements to the effect contractors have not been paid for government work are "completely false."

"Good governments show up best in tough times," the premier philosophized. "What has confused our enemies is that we have reduced the provincial debt and are putting the province in good shape at the same time."

The premier said he was "very optimistic" over indications that the tight money policy in North America has been arrested.

CLEAR REVERSAL
"First Canada started to ease its money supply and Thursday the United States reduced its discount rate from 3½ to 3 per cent. This is a clear reversal of the trend towards tight money and the people of British Columbia, in particular, can breathe more easily as a result."

"If this trend continues, we shall feel the financial benefits in B.C. by about next May or June. In the meantime, our national government should introduce special policies to deal with conditions during the winter months."

French Walk Out; Protest to Britain

(From Times' News Services)

Unprecedented indignation rocked France today as Thursday's announcement that both Britain and the U.S. were sending arms shipments to Tunisia.

Developments were:

1. Premier Felix Gaillard said that next month's NATO summit meeting in Paris could not achieve its aims for Atlantic solidarity unless the question of arms shipments to Tunisia is settled to France's satisfaction first.

2. France stormed out of a NATO conference in Paris, charging that the United States and Britain had "betrayed" the Atlantic Alliance.

3. France delivered a strong protest to Britain when Ambassador Jean Chauvel called on Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

4. In Tunis President Habib Bourguiba said a shipment of arms from Egypt will arrive soon.

5. Canada had known for some weeks that Britain and the United States proposed to send arms to Tunisia, external affairs officials said today. However, in the Commons Prime Minister Diefenbaker declined to answer the question directly.

In reply to Opposition Leader St. Laurent, the prime minister said he did not wish to say anything which might aggravate the situation.

Mr. St. Laurent and CCF Leader Coldwell both put the same question again: did the government have advance information?

Mr. Diefenbaker declined to reply.

"Same as Suez" was the comment from an unidentified member from the opposition side of the House.

In Paris, Gaillard told the National Assembly France refused

to join in sending arms to Tunisia without proper guarantees because "it seemed to us essential that an international arms competition should not make out of Tunisia an arsenal for use by our enemies."

Gaillard said he intends to maintain pressure to settle the dispute.

"It is certain that unless a clear unequivocal solution is found before the NATO summit talks next December, the fundamental ideas of the NATO conference and the hopes which it arouses cannot fail to be put in doubt."

U.S. Democrats Side With France

A group of U.S. Democratic congressmen attending the meeting of NATO legislators joined France in denouncing the arms shipments.

The group, headed by Representative Wayne Hays of Ohio, said in a statement the arms deliveries "constituted a danger to the unity of the North Atlantic treaty alliance."

Bourguiba was making his weekly broadcast to the nation a few hours after a token shipment of British arms had arrived here. An American shipment was expected later.

Bourguiba said current American policy could help to bring about a solution of the Algerian problem.

The Communists seized the issue as an instrument to attack NATO.

The rightist Parisien-Liberte says "Some will dream of a French government having enough energy and a sense of national pride to inform London and Washington that, after these arms deliveries, France cannot remain in NATO."

Decision Held 'Ruthless, Unjustified'

Before the French delegation walked out of the NATO conference, Senator Michel Debre protested against the "ruthless and unjustified" Anglo-American decision.

Debre said: "President Eisenhower and Mr. Harold Macmillan have betrayed the Atlantic alliance... there can be no reconciliation as far as I, as a delegate to the NATO parliamentary conference, am concerned unless the United States and Britain stop forthwith the sending of arms to Tunisia."

Debre, a former follower of wartime premier Gen. Charles de Gaulle, said French soldiers fighting nationalist rebels in Algeria are writing home saying their "comrades are being killed by Atlantic Pact arms."

Bitter Exchanges Mark Pulp Workers' Strike

AFL-CIO OUSTS BAKERY UNION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL-CIO today suspended the Bakery Workers' Union from the federation.

AFL-CIO president George Meany said actions of the bakery workers' executive board constitute "failure and refusal to comply" with an Oct. 25 order of the AFL-CIO executive council.

Credit Ease Spurs Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market raced ahead today in response to news four federal reserve banks had eased credit.

Huge blocks changed hands at the opening and the ticker tape fell behind floor transactions. It never lagged more than two minutes, however.

Stocks gaining $3 to $4 included Amerasia, Gulf Oil, International Nickel, Du Pont, International Telephone and U.S. Borax.

Married Women on Even Footing For Unemployment Insurance

OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister Michael Starr today announced the end of an unemployment insurance regulation which, he said, had "overtones of discrimination" against married women.

From the start of next week married women will be on the same footing as all other women in the fund. Further, if she was working labor force "will be on exactly the same footing as all other women in the fund."

OTTAWA (CP)—The government today again declined to inform the Commons whether it will present a budget at this session of Parliament.

Finance Minister Fleming gave non-committal replies to several questions relating to the issue.

Jewish Leaders Deny Protest Says Bennett

Premier Bennett stated today he had received a three-man delegation of Jewish leaders from Vancouver who rejected "anti-Jewish" allegations made against the B.C. Social Credit government.

He said these three "leading Jewish citizens" had dissociated themselves from organizations such as the United Jewish Peoples' League, which have repudiated anti-Semitic statements made at the B.C. Social Credit League convention last month.

The premier intimated the delegation would be issuing a statement to this effect and he named Nathan Nemetz, QC, as one of the delegation.

Mystery Shrouds Crash of Airliner

HONOLULU — Complete mystery shrouds details of the fate of the luxury Pan-American airliner which crashed into the Pacific last Friday with 44 persons on board.

Recovery of 17 broken bodies Thursday only deepened the mystery and the U.S. navy continued to press relentlessly for further clues.

Salient elements in the puzzle are:

Three of the 17 bodies recovered wore watches which had stopped at 5:27. The last message from the plane, a routine position report was sent at 5:04.

Thus, a four-engined plane of the most modern kind and

COL. R. I. ABEL

Russian Spy Jailed 30 Years, Fined

NEW YORK (AP)—Russian Colonel Rudolf I. Abel, highest-ranking Soviet spy ever caught in the United States, escaped a death penalty today but was sentenced to 30 years in prison and given a $3,000 fine.

Abel masterminded a spy ring operation for nine years in the U.S. He was the first foreign national ever to stand trial for his life on an espionage charge in a civilian American courtroom.

MacDiarmid said the evidence "indicates the pilot did not have anything to do with the crash or he would not have had time to warn people to get into jackets and get their shoes off."

I would assume the pilot ditched the aircraft."

Asked why the big plane, Honolulu-bound from San Francisco, had sent no radio call after a routine position report at 5:04 p.m., MacDiarmid said:

"So many things could have caused it, it's foolish to conjecture."

Other theories were that the plane may have thrown a propeller, or been hit by a meteor.

Laika Now Dead Moscow Says So

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet scientist announced today that Laika, the dog in Sputnik II, suffocated when the oxygen regenerative equipment aboard the earth satellite stopped working.

The scientist, Alexei Pokrovsky, told a press conference there never had been any plan to bring Laika back to earth. He said she died painlessly of oxygen deficiency when equipment designed to regenerate oxygen had completed its program.

TUNISIA

The French delegation said in a statement it was walking out to express the feeling provoked in France "by the ruthless and unjustified decision of two NATO member governments."

It said it considered the search for Atlantic unity "has no further point," declared it would take no further part in the conference, and hoped that NATO leaders would consider "this breach of Atlantic solidarity" as soon as possible.

Ambassador Herve Alphand in Washington was said to have been instructed to lodge a protest with the U.S. government.

Two British planes landed in Tunis early today with the first load of the western arms.

An American shipment was due in the Tunisian capital by plane later today.

SPAARK SEEKS PEACE
NATO secretary-general Paul Henri Spaak buttonholed French delegation members in an attempt to have them reconsider their decision to walk-out.

"I think you are wrong in what you did," Spaak said.

A NATO spokesman told reporters that the French walk-out over the Tunisian arms affair would certainly be a principle topic at Saturday's meeting of NATO's 15 permanent representatives. The spokesman said that there had been no consultations within the NATO council before the British-American decision to ship arms to Tunisia.

Clement Davies, Liberal leader in the British House of Commons, told the Assembly he was "deeply distressed" by the French walkout.

Before the U.S. Democrats condemned the U.S. move in their joint statement, Representative Hays told the NATO assembly, an advisory group:

"The French have good grounds to be discouraged. I think delivery of arms to Tunisia was a tragic mistake."

Hays called the arms affair "a sterile and stupid policy."

After the French walkout, U.S. Senator Estes Kefauver (Dem. Tenn.) took the floor in the NATO assembly and went on to other matters as if nothing had happened.

France quit the UN assembly for two months in 1955 after it voted to debate the Algerian rebellion. But Britain and the United States sided then with France, and the French delegation returned only after the assembly backed down and gave Algeria the brushoff.

STRIKE

increase recommended by a conciliation board majority.

The unions struck to back demands for 12½ per cent boosts. Basic wage rate in the industry is $1.72 an hour which would be increased to $1.85 by the company offer. Average hourly earnings are $2.30 and would rise to $2.50, Mr. Blair said.

W. McCandlish, president of the International Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers local in Nanaimo, retorted:

"The companies, by having their bargaining done through a central industrial relations bureau, together with the nullifying effect of the province's Labor Relations Act, have made collective bargaining virtually impossible."

He said the unions found themselves dealing with company representatives "who have never worked a day in the industry, rather than the men who know every phase of it."

EFFECTS SPREAD

Effects of the strike began spreading today. Garth Griffiths, assistant general manager of B.C. Power Commission, said the shutdown of three of the island mills who were customers had produced "significant losses in revenue."

However, he added, even if the strike is prolonged it will not have any effect on the commission's staff requirements.

Loggers are in a different position. International Woodworkers of America local at Victoria, Duncan and Port Alberni reported the strike has had no effect on their men but, if prolonged, could result in layoffs at logging camps and converter mills.

DOUBLE BLOW
Reductions in United States demand and the strike have hit the pulp chips suppliers a double blow. Three mills at

SOVIET MERCHANT NAVY ALLEGED HUGE SPY RING

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A former Russian naval officer said today the Soviet merchant navy is a huge spy organization.

Lieut. Lev I. Predtetshevskii told a press conference every Russian merchant vessel carries several Red navy officers. These officers, he said, are spies who give their attention solely to exploration of foreign coastal waters, preparing nautical charts for military purposes and dredging out hydrographical data.

Youbou, Honeymoon Bay and Mesachie Lake have begun stockpiling chips that can't be shipped.

Largest of the strike-bound pulp companies, Powell River, reported it was making arrangements to buy newsprint supplies outside B.C. if needed to supply customers. A spokesman said most customers have at least a 60-day supply of newsprint on hand.

On other fronts, one strike was settled and another started.

An eight-week strike by 60 members of Local 433 of the Pulp and Sulphite Converters Union went back to work today after Barret Roofing Limited, of Vancouver, signed a new contract providing a 16 per cent wage increase spread over two years.

But in Kelowna, no move has been made to end a strike of 180 Kelowna carpenters who Wednesday rejected a builders association offer of $2.35 an hour across the board. Present pay is $2 and $2.25 an hour.

Mafia Suspected In N.Y. Garbage Haulage Racket

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the racket-riddled garbage hauling business in metropolitan New York raised a question today whether the Mafia mob is involved in the Teamsters Union generally and is out to take over the country.

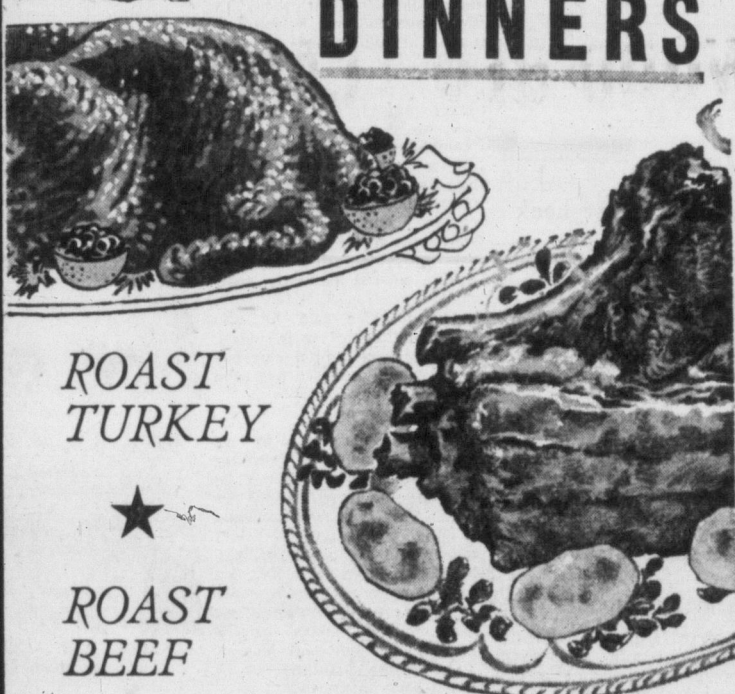

Senator John McClellan (Dem. Ark.) and Senator Irving Ives (Rep. N.Y.) exploded into denunciation of racketeers and hoodlums after James Rosetti, president of the Greater New York Cartmen's Association, refused to testify lest he incriminate himself.

Ives, vice-chairman of the Senate rackets investigating committee, said that "all this testimony is developing a rather sinister note" and referred specifically to the testimony that the Mafia is in-

January New Target Date For First U.S. Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Army, already speeding work on earth satellites, may be ready to launch its space travellers by January.

But the boss of the program—Maj.-Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the army ballistic missile agency—was cautious in outlining progress Thursday night in a meeting with newspaper men.

He said considerable revamping of the Jupiter-C weapon research rocket is needed to adapt it for satellite launching.

The closest Medaris would come to a forecast was a statement that after a rocket is completely fabricated, it is not less than 30 days from the launching time.

He also noted that President Eisenhower had set March for launching of U.S. Navy's first fully-instrumented satellite with test firings of small spheres scheduled in December.

Medaris said the Russians apparently have reached a workable solution to the problem of getting a nose cone warhead of a missile back through the atmosphere and on target.

He emphasized that the United States Army has solved this problem with two tests using the Jupiter-C vehicle. Both tests of nose cone re-entry appear

TOT REFUSED CANDY BAR ... REASON, $100 BILL

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Money can't buy everything—sometimes not even a nickel candy bar. A little girl learned that Thursday when she innocently asked for some five-cent candy and handed a shopkeeper a $100 bill.

Instead of the candy, the bill brought—running—her school principal, then her mother.

Laing Wants UBCM Men With Bennett

Premier Bennett was urged Thursday to include at least two nominees of the Union of B.C. Municipalities in the group accompanying him to Ottawa for the federal-provincial fiscal conference Nov. 25-26.

Liberal Leader Arthur Laing suggested in a telegram to the premier that they be included "in an advisory capacity."

He approved of Premier Bennett's decision to include Mayor Fred Hume of Vancouver, but said other B.C. municipalities have different financial problems than Vancouver.

"House of Commons debates have featured the plight of the municipalities and I am sure your position and effectiveness would be greatly assisted by the presence of municipal representatives."

'Back Door' Freeze On Pay Charged

Hospital Workers Say Martin Unfair In Implying Their Salaries Trebled

Wage freezes "via the back door" were charged Thursday against Health Minister Eric Martin by employee associations at Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals.

A joint statement issued by the associations, representing 850 non-nursing staff employees, attacked a statement by the minister this week that in nine years of BCHIS operation wage outlays have trebled at hospitals.

UNFAIR

The statement said that although wage outlays have increased three times, it was unfair to impart the impression that salaries have trebled.

Main cause of the larger wage outlay was "due to the costs of furnishing extra staff to cope with the ever-increasing patient coverage required by BCHIS."

Although not issuing an actual wage-freeze order, the minister "makes a point of informing hospitals that BCHIS will not make monies available to cover wage increases" at a time when working agreements come up for negotiation, the statement said.

U.S. Credit Ease Boosts Toronto, N.Y.

The Toronto market widened its advance today in moderate late afternoon trading.

The market opened strong following the announcement by the U.S. federal reserve board that it has authorized a cut from 3 1/2 to 3 per cent in the discount rate of four of 12 district banks.

The strong buying surge faltered during the noon hour but later it picked up and prices began to add to earlier gains.

The New York markets big rally on news of easier credit continued at its top late in the day after resisting a spot of profit-taking. The market was strong from the start. Every section of the exchange surged forward.

AT TORONTO utilities and pipelines were among the stronger winners in industrial groupings. A dozen stocks had gains ranging from a point to four points.

Senior base metals moved solidly ahead, led by International Nickel's 3 1/2-point jump to 75. Lower-priced mines gained on a broad front with advances ranging to 40 cents, most of the bigger gains being recorded among coppers.

Western oils scored a long list of gains and few losses. There were several 15-25 cent jumps in lower-priced stocks.

AT NEW YORK Canadian gains included International Nickel, up 3 1/2; McIntyre Potash, up 2 1/2; and Aluminum Ltd., 1 1/2.

Canadian gains on the American exchange included Shawinigan, 1/2; Fargo Oil, 1/2; and Molybdenite, 1-1/2.

AT MONTREAL prices held firm in moderate trading today on the stock exchange. Gains ranged to two points.

Base metals still led the pace, with International Nickel up 2 at 74 and Aluminum up 1 1/2 at 28 1/2. Canada Cement was up 1 1/2 at 21 1/2 in the construction group and in banks, Royal Bank was up 1 1/2 at 61.

AT LONDON the reduction of the discount rate by four U.S. federal reserve banks gave a big boost to the stock market here today.

There was speculation that the British bank rate also might be reduced. Fixed interest securities improved, with gilt-edged generally better.

Dollar stocks were higher, steel better and coppers very firm.

AT VANCOUVER a moderate market saw little change in prices. Pease River Petroleum 5,300 at 68. Vance Motor 2,600 at 12.8. Premier Borden sold 10,000 at 4 1/2. Pacific Nickel sold 2,000 at 70.

FROM OUTER SPACE It is estimated that meteors enter the earth's atmosphere at speeds up to 50 miles a second.

Capt. McKay said a group he heads proposes to build a wharf 250 by 40 feet, fitted with track hopper conveyor belts and other equipment for handling bulk cargoes such as coal, ore, potash and similar products.

He said financing has been completed and he hopes construction will be started in December and be completed in March.

New Brand Names By Massey-Ferguson

TORONTO (CP) — Massey-Ferguson Ltd. has announced brand-name, dealer and product developments which Albert A. Thornbrough, president, described as pointing up "completion of the integration of the Massey-Ferguson operations."

A new brand-name, "Massey-Ferguson," will identify all new model tractors and all general line implements.

The present model 35 tractor will retain the name "Ferguson" and combines will retain the name "Massey-Ferguson."

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Indications that export business in barley had developed marked trading today on the Winnipeg grain exchange.

There was a possibility that 1,000,000 bushels of barley had been sold Thursday and Friday.

Trade in barley was moderately active and there was buying by shippers, including domestic accounts.

The oat trade revealed U.S. houses as active buyers. Prices moved narrowly.

Flax trade was less active than usual with international interests buying and selling.

Overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat included: United Kingdom 430,000, Japan 370,000, Germany 195,000, Venezuela, a small quantity.

Lakehead prices for class two IWA and domestic wheat were all 1/2 higher than Thursday.

U.S. Reserve Board Cuts Discount Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. federal reserve board, said to be convinced that inflation is subsiding, has taken a firm step to ease the tight money market.

GUY WANTS TOP FIELD TO FACE SWOON'S SON

BALTIMORE (AP)—E. Guy Drake of Lexington, Ky., accepted Thursday the first invitation to the Pimlico Special on Nov. 30 for his Swoon's Son and hoped it could turn out to be a final race for "horse of the year" ballots.

The mile and three-sixteenths race would have to draw either Bold Ruler, Gallant Man or Dedicate for such an opportunity.

And it appears unlikely at this time.

Swoon's Son has won seven major races this year and is the seventh-highest money winner of all time with $766,905.

Green Pastures Beckon 92 B.C. Thoroughbreds

The Vancouver Thoroughbred Association has listed 92 horses that will be barred from major B.C. tracks next season unless they receive veterinary approval that they are "in sound condition and fit for racing."

An additional 23 horses, the Association said, were voluntarily retired by their owners and do not appear on the list.

The Association also added that horses appearing on the Prairie Thoroughbred Breeders and Racing Association barred list will not be granted stall space at any track under jurisdiction of the Vancouver Thoroughbred Association Limited.

The tracks are Sandown, located at Sidney, and Lansdowne and Exhibition Park.

One of the reasons for issuing the barred list this week is because of the seventh annual B.C. Breeders Society sale at the PNE grounds in Vancouver Saturday, starting at 1:30 p.m.

Application for re-instatement must be received on or before Dec. 10 and must be accompanied by a veterinarian's certificate stating that the horse is in sound condition and fit for racing.

EX-CHAMP RISKS PRESTIGE

Fullmer Gambles Tonight

NEW YORK (UP)—Ex-champion Gene Fullmer is favored at 17-5 to beat Neal Rivers tonight and remain the No. 1 challenger for the middleweight crown.

The 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden between Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, and Rivers, the California State champion, will be televised and broadcast nationally.

Despite the betting odds, mauler Gene will be taking a genuine gamble in this "all-to-lose" fight with Los Angeles Neal, an unrated contender but a dangerous sharpshooter.

Fullmer will be risking his chance for a title shot in case Sugar Ray Robinson retires and foregoes an attempt to recapture the 160-pound crown from Carmen Basilio.

Cocker spaniels were so called because in earlier years many were used in hunting woodcocks.

Gene can add little to his prestige tonight, for he already is rated second among contenders—just a notch below top-ranked Sugar Ray.

Fullmer, 26, seeks his third straight victory since he lost the title to Robinson on a fifth-round knockout at Chicago, May 1. He won decisions over Ralph (Tiger) Jones, June 7, and Chico Vejar, Sept. 4.

FAMED STALLION OFF TO SALES

Big blow to Vancouver Island's standing as a thoroughbred breeding centre was the departure today of Grey Skies, only son of the great sire Mahmoud at stud in western Canada. Property of the estate of the late J. J. Ross, Grey Skies is seen stepping into a van to be shipped by Fred Ball to Vancouver for the thoroughbred sales there Saturday.

He sired winners of 48 races on B.C. tracks this year to lead the field, and he has many saddlehorse offspring here. (Times Photo by Irving Strickland.)

MONTE ROBERTS

Reporting on B.C. Centennial activities, a newspaper (not this one) produced this intriguing paragraph:

"Victoria and Vancouver Symphony Orchestras will tour the province as will treasured historical relics and Mart Kenney and his Western Gentlemen."

I must see that Mart receives a clipping of this item. I know he will be delighted to learn he is a historical relic, and a treasured one, at that.

Why, the very idea! Mart Kenney is still a young man. I should know. We went to different schools together. And it used to be my great pleasure to dance every dance when Mart and his men played the Spanish Grill in the old Hotel Vancouver.

Not the present Hotel Vancouver, with its flamboyant decorations, but the old, mellowed hotel.

I can remember when they raised the price for the supper dance to $3 per couple, and how indignant we all were, although the price included dancing and a nourishing supper, with waiters asking if you'd like more coffee, with waiters asking if you'd like more coffee.

And the pint of gin under the table cost 85 cents, and everybody used to say this was a crime, because most of the price was for taxes.

What am I saying? Good heavens, Mart MUST be a historical relic.

While we are delving into the past, you might like to know exactly what constitutes a pioneer.

The Centennial committee has produced scrolls of honor to be issued to B.C. pioneers.

And, in its usual thorough fashion, the committee has also produced a definition of "pioneers."

In fact, THREE definitions. Pioneer No. 1 (should we say Pioneer First Class) is a man or woman who resided in B.C. before the province became part of Canada on July 20, 1871.

Pioneer Second Class is a person who lived here before the first regular trans-continental train reached the Pacific Coast, July 4, 1886.

Pioneer Third Class is for those who didn't live here at either of those periods, but who "merit recognition for their contribution to the development of their communities."

I am putting in an application for Pioneer First Class.

My application is based on the saying "You're only as old as you feel."

High Hopes For Visit By Eisenhower

B.C.'s Centennial Committee has high hopes that President Dwight D. Eisenhower of the United States, as well as Princess Margaret, will be a distinguished guest during the centenary year.

R. A. Pennington, deputy Provincial Secretary, told a meeting of the general committee in Vancouver Thursday that the president had been invited to "come to B.C. at any time during 1958—with a broad hint that he might come in time to open the Pacific National Exhibition."

Victoria Mayor Percy Scurrell said today President Eisenhower will "certainly" be invited to visit Victoria if he comes to B.C.

Although official acceptance from Princess Margaret has not been received, it is an open secret that she most likely will represent the Queen of Canada here during the 1958 celebrations.

The unofficial hope is that she will be in B.C. during Navy Week, tentatively slated for July 24 to July 31.

The RCN is expected to announce plans for Navy Week, one of the outstanding functions of the year, in the near future. But full details of the navy's participation are likely to hinge on official notice of the Princess Margaret visit.

Invitations have been sent through the external affairs department to other Commonwealth nations and the United States to have warships visit B.C. waters during Navy Week.

A total of as many as 35 ships from other countries may visit various B.C. ports at that time.

The visiting contingent to Victoria would moor in the Royal Roads anchorage, off the entrance to Esquamalt Harbor.

Among other events under discussion for Navy Week are "open house" days for all ships and shore establishments of the Pacific Command.

Acceptance on general terms of the invitation to send ships has been received by the British Admiralty.

It was announced at the centennial committee meeting Thursday that invitations have also been sent to President Rafael Cortines of Mexico, Commonwealth premiers, provincial premiers, and the governors of several states of the U.S.A.

Saanich Dairyman Named B.C.'s Top Potato Grower

John P. Pendray, dairy farmer at 4160 Blenkinsop Road, who grows a few potatoes on the side, was chosen grand champion B.C. potato grower Thursday at Burnaby.

He was named to the honor at the first annual B.C. potato industry conference, at the Burnaby Hotel.

Chief speaker was Alex Hope, chairman of the B.C. coast vegetable marketing board, who said B.C. must import 25,000 tons of potatoes annually because of high costs here.

34 METERS DAMAGED BY THIEVES

$15 Stolen In Two Days

Police today were searching for clues which might lead to the arrest of thieves who smashed and robbed 34 parking meters in the downtown area in the past two days.

Damage to the parking meters is estimated at $170. The thieves netted about $15 in nickels and pennies.

City police said a screwdriver or similar tool was used to pry the locks open.

The main raid on the meters took place Thursday night, when a total of 26 meters were broken into on Fort Street, two on Broughton, two on Langley and two on Yates.

On Wednesday night eight others were robbed.

ALL REPAIRED All meters were repaired today by the city engineering department, traffic division.

Traffic engineer Norman Worsley said the loss in money was not great, but the damage to the meters was high, about $5 a meter.

"An average meter collects about 30 cents a day," he said. The meters are emptied about three times a week. So we don't consider we have lost much money, but from a damage point of view it is costly."

BENNETT HASN'T SEEN SOMMERS

Premier Bennett replied with an emphatic "no" today when asked if he had seen former lands and forests minister Robert Sommers, who returned to his home here last Wednesday after several months of seclusion.

The premier did not discuss the matter further.

2 Announce Candidacy In Esquimalt

Former Esquimalt Councillor G. K. Sammon today joined former reeve Magistrate A. I. "Bert" Thomas, in announcing candidacy in Esquimalt municipal elections.

Mr. Sammon will run for council. Magistrate Thomas will contest the reeve ship, now held by Reeve A. C. Wurtele.

Magistrate Thomas announced his candidacy Thursday night and assured a two-way contest for the post of reeve. He was reeve from 1947 to 1951.

SHOULD BE ELECTED

Mr. Sammon, Esquimalt's delegate on the Centennial Committee of Greater Victoria and chairman of the Victoria-Esquamalt Union Board of Health, said his position on these intermunicipal boards should be held by an elected representative.

He said: "I feel I would be better able to express the feelings of the municipality on these boards if I were back on council."

Mr. Sammon was councillor from 1953 to 1956.

TRAFFIC FINES

Dec. 12 Group Backs Ash Re-Election

Saanich Reeve Arthur Ash was voted full support by 36 members of the December 12th Group who turned out to a meeting in St. Luke's community hall Thursday night.

"We decided to support his bid for re-election because of his outstanding work despite being outnumbered on council," Charles Nelles, chairman of the meeting said today.

The December 12th Group, formed four months ago by about 60 Saanich voters, has the objectives of finding candidates for council and increasing the voting turnout at the civic election next month.

HEAVIER VOTE

Mr. Nelles, himself a candidate for council, said the turnout indicated there would be a heavier vote than usual.

The meeting called for continued discussions on location and financing of a joint Victoria-Saanich municipal hall "but in the interim suggested that Saanich should build temporary municipal office quarters that could be used later for a public works or health building," Mr. Nelles said.

Sub-committees on candidates, platform, contributions and election campaigning were instructed to make reports at the group's next meeting, expected in less than two weeks.

Vendors Worst Offenders Scurrah Advised by Chief

Government liquor stores are worst offenders in the sale of beer and liquor to juveniles, according to repeated reports to Mayor Percy Scurrell.

The mayor, who opened a probe into liquor traffic among juveniles this week, said district police and private informants say most of liquor supplied youngsters is sold over store counters.

The mayor will recommend a tightening of regulations in a letter to the Liquor Control Board, he stated.

"There should be strict enforcement of a regulation requiring clerks to ask proof of age from any customer of doubtful years," said the mayor.

Mayor Scurrell said he has received a great many confidential tips since appealing for public aid in halting sales of intoxicants to minors.

"I have also had a great many calls from parents, all of them very disturbed, many of them with sad experiences to relate concerning their own youngsters and liquor."

The mayor added the traffic with youngsters appears far more serious than he had thought.

WILLIAM HAMILTON

Commissioner Sure to Get Another Term

Appointment of Victoria police commissioner William Hamilton to another two-year term in office appeared certain at City Hall today.

Word was received from government sources that the B.C. cabinet is prepared to accept and appoint the outgoing member of the commission.

Under the new Municipal Act there are no further elections for police commission. The mayor is automatically a member, one is appointed by the cabinet and one by city council, in alternate years.

AGREED TO SERVE

Mayor Percy Scurrell said he has "strongly urged" the appointment of Commissioner Hamilton. He said Commissioner Hamilton has agreed to serve if the appointment is made.

In view of the government suggestion for appointment of the outgoing member and the mayor's recommendation, there was little doubt the appointment will follow, city hall officials believed.

Commissioner Hamilton has served on the commission for six years, being re-elected twice. Gordon Carter is the third member of the commission. His term in office ends in December, 1958.

Jonquiere Into Reserve After Refit

Another RCN frigate is scheduled to join the reserve fleet "mothballed" at Esquimalt harbor in the near future.

HMCS Jonquiere, now on exercises in coastal waters, will be paid off into reserve after annual refit.

She will be replaced in the Fourth Canadian Escort Squadron by HMCS New Waterford, now in final stages of modernization at Yarrow's Ltd.

It was previously announced that HMCS New Glasgow will go into reserve when her refit is completed this month.

Navy ships undergo refit before being paid off into reserve so they can be manned and put in action in the shortest possible time in the event of emergency.

Although it is not yet definite, either HMCS Sussexvale or HMCS Ste. Therese may be paid off when modernization is completed on HMCS Beacon Hill at Burrard Dry Dock Ltd., North Vancouver.

All ships mentioned are Prestonian Class frigates.

New Evidence Aired In Deportation Case

The U.S. Court of Appeals has taken under submission the plea of Victoria-born Mrs. Hazel Anna Wolf, 59, of Seattle, for a new court hearing on an order for her deportation to Canada.

Deportation proceedings were instituted against Mrs. Wolf May 31, 1949, on the grounds she was an alien and Communist party member.

Mrs. Wolf claimed new evidence would permit her to prove that although born in Victoria, she had a right of U.S. citizenship through her mother who was American but married to a British subject. She entered the U.S. in 1922.

She was alleged to have had Communist ties in 1938-39. CCF legislature members last August protested the deportation order on the grounds that Mrs. Wolf's political affiliations nearly 20 years ago had no bearing on the situation today.

CCF members Arthur Turner and Leo Nimsick, and Harold Winch, CCF MP for Vancouver-East, protested the action to U.S. Attorney-General Herbert Brownell.

Mrs. Wolf has no known relatives in Canada.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Baking for Christmas?
Here Are Ingredients

By PENNY SAVER

Mother is in the kitchen! In the kitchen? What is she doing? Baking Christmas cakes, Christmas cakes!

Let's go and watch her. Oh, she's putting all sorts of scrumptious goodies into that big bowl. Things like almonds at 35 cents a package; walnuts at 42 cents a bag, and raisins and currants for 25 cents a package. (Between you and me, the price is a little higher if raisins or nuts are packed in cardboard boxes, so keep your eye open for cellophane!)

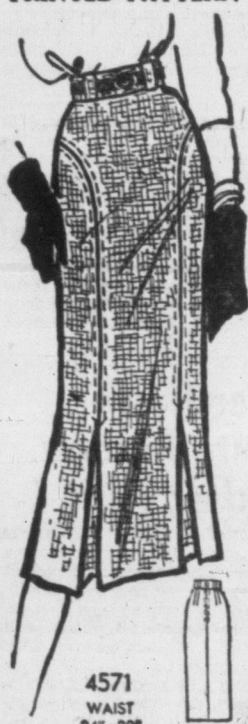

Something colorful and delicious just dropped into the bowl and I think it's candied peel. Might be wrong, but what's a Christmas cake without mixed fruit peel? Nothing. So get a package at 25 cents or 39 cents, according to size.

Here's something you'll not only need for everyday eating, but for all that Yuletide cooking you'll be doing. The something? Why, eggs of course. I know where they'll cost you a mere 75 cents. Other stores are selling at 80 to 85 cents.

Fresh chopped suet is necessary for those Christmas puddings and why not make them now and get it over with. With a busy festive season coming up, you won't want to give up parties and dates for the Christmas cooking! Suet is 25 cents for lump and 35 cents for chopped.

I've found a potato chip that's greaseless! It's low in calories and best of all, low in price. There are two types of these chips. One is plain and the other, wrinkled. They are wrinkled, for a reason. Makes them easier to hold on to at a party when you dip them into the various sauces on the table. Sounds slightly complicated, but who knows? You might be glad that the potato chips are wrinkled when you're wearing a good dress or suit at the next festivity. Small size 29 cents and large 59 cents.

Q. "I have started doing exercises for my waist but have given them up because I am tired of them, and would not have time as I am going to school. If I wore a waist cincher for a year or more would it take my waistline down four inches?"

A. Even if you had it tight enough to pinch you badly, I do not believe the result would be what you wish. This would be unhealthful and much more unpleasant than doing any number of exercises. You do not sound to me as though you gave the exercises a chance.

Q. "I just wondered if you could help me. I am 60 and in good health, but overweight. At night I use the best hormone creams and oils, yet my face has gotten so crepey it wears me. Do I need vitamins or green vegetables?"

A. Everyone needs vitamins and green vegetables. Sometimes extremely dry skin is due to a vitamin deficiency. The first thing is to eat a well-balanced vitamin-high diet. Then it might be wise to reinforce your diet with more vitamins. The green, leafy vegetables are an important part of your diet because of their vitamin and mineral content.

Health and nutrition are reflected in all of the tissues of the body and therefore do affect our complexions. Be careful about this. Ask your doctor about vitamins and keep on with the creams and oils.

Q. "Is it dangerous to tweeze hairs from the chin? I find that depilatories burn and chafe."

A. I cannot imagine why you thought it might be dangerous. Perhaps you were thinking that it might make the hair grow in thicker. There is no evidence this is so.

Q. "I would like a thicker browline but the hairs that have been tweezed come in stiff, and sometimes white, although I do not have grey hair. Can I soften them?"

A. I have recently mentioned in this column that you can sometimes hold the wild hairs in line by applying a touch of petroleum jelly. You also can widen the effect of your brows by using an eyebrow brush cleverly.

Q. "I am 5 feet 6 inches tall and weigh 142 pounds. My bust measures 35 inches, waist 27 1/2 and hips 41 1/2 inches. People tell me that I look wonderful, perhaps because I have lost 46 pounds since my second child was born. I think I could lose another 10 pounds. Do you think I'm right, and are my measurements really off?"

A. Congratulations on your loss. I know how much better you must look and feel. Do not lose another 10 pounds. That would make you underweight. You might lose another five if it would make you happier. Your hips are too large. Take hip-slimming exercises.

Winnipeg Club's 50th Anniversary

WINNIPEG (CP)—The first Women's Canadian Club to be formed in western Canada, a Winnipeg organization with a proud history of patriotic work and progress, celebrates its 50th anniversary today.

Several charter members, including eight who have held the office of president, will attend the anniversary meeting and tea. The first woman secretary of state for Canada, Hon. Ellen Fairclough, will be the speaker.

Today, with Mrs. W. A. Trott as president, the membership totals more than 1,200. The club is a member of the Champlain Society which publishes rare Canadian historical material.

On Nov. 29, 1907, a group of 75 women first met in the Winnipeg YWCA "to consider the advisability of forming a Women's Canadian Club on the same lines as the Men's Canadian Clubs."

Organization was rapid and a week later Mrs. W. Sanford Evans was elected president. When the club held its inaugural luncheon there were 227 members. At the end of the year, there were 355 members.

The sixth annual report for the year 1912-13 showed a membership of 1,512, putting the club "well into the lead of women's clubs of any kind in Canada."

In 1927, president Mrs. John Bracken, wife of the then premier of Manitoba, reported a total membership of 2,544. In the years following, membership remained high, but never again reached the 1927 figure.

The purpose of the club is to "foster patriotism by encouraging study of the institutions, history, arts, literature and resources of Canada, and by endeavoring to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the nation as may be desirable and expedient." Some of the projects of the club which has 14 meetings a year, undertaken during the year, included means to preserve the sun dials left by Sir John Franklin at northern Hudson's Bay Company posts on his last voyage; establishment of a committee to deal with the preservation of buffalo trails; erection of a tablet in old St. Andrew's Church on the Red River.

The club keeps a book in which speakers at the various meetings and distinguished visitors sign their names.

HALIFAX (CP)—Former external affairs minister Lester B. Pearson said today the consequence of failure in the search for world peace may be absolute extinction.

"The next war might be a war to end all wars, and indeed everything," he said, addressing 950 students at Queen Elizabeth High School.

QUEBEC (CP)—The Chronicle-Telegraph says at least three major syndicates are operating call girl and prostitution systems in Quebec City.

About 60 women are involved, the newspaper says, and they cater mostly to visitors and highly-placed local dignitaries. There were another 200 girls known to be operating independently.

B.C. Member Urges CBC Scrapped

OTTAWA (CP)—John R. Taylor said in his maiden Commons speech today that the CBC should be scrapped as a broadcasting network system.

The Progressive Conservative member for Vancouver-Burrard suggested, instead, that private enterprise be given full scope in broadcasting. The CBC would be used to provide serious music, drama programs and other broadcasts "that cannot subsist commercially."

House May Bypass Divorce Bills

OTTAWA (CP)—The possibility developed today that a good number of the 370 odd petitions for parliamentary divorce bills may not be passed at this session when Works Minister Green, government House leader, indicated in the Commons that the government is aiming at winding up the session in four weeks, before Christmas.

Bristol Britannia Sets Atlantic Mark

LONDON (Reuters)—A long-range Bristol Britannia 312 airliner has flown from London to New York in 10 hours, five minutes, a British Overseas Airways Corporation spokesman said Friday night. The spokesman declined to claim a record for this proving flight which took place Thursday night. Independent research, however, showed the nearest comparable recorded time was 10 hours, nine minutes by a Pan-American DC-7C on a commercial flight last March.

HOUSE OPENS JAN. 23

Bennett Blasts
Short Money Talk

Next session of the B.C. Legislature will open Thursday, Jan. 23, at 3 p.m., Premier Bennett announced today.

"This follows the practice we started last year of giving the Leader of the Opposition time to study the Speech From the Throne over the weekend," he said.

"The premier added that when the budget is brought down many people will 'eat crow' over their statements that the government is in financial difficulties."

He said there was "absolutely no truth" to a report that about $6,500,000 in government cheques are being held back by the provincial treasury.

"This is just newspaper ballyhoo," he said.

NOT TOO FAR

Then with a broad grin the premier said:

"Of course I don't blame the press for starting these rumors ahead of the session—but don't go too far unless you want to eat crow at the next session."

The premier said he had compiled "a great fund" of newspaper editorials over the years "and some time I am going to have a lot of fun with them... You have to have a sense of humor in public life."

He said that statements to the effect contractors have not been paid for government work are "completely false."

Mystery Shrouds Airliner Crash

(From Times' News Services)
HONOLULU — Complete mystery shrouds details of the fate of the luxury Pan-American stratoscramper which crashed into the Pacific last Friday with 44 persons.

Recovery of 17 broken bodies Thursday only deepened the mystery and the U.S. navy continued to press relentlessly for further clues.

Salient elements in the puzzle are:

Three of the 17 bodies recovered were watches which had stopped at 5:27. The last message from the plane, a routine position report was sent at 5:04.

Thus, a four-engined plane with the most modern radio and safety equipment vanished at 10,000 feet altitude over a calm sea without sending out some hint, for 23 minutes, that it was in distress.

Most of the bodies wore life jackets, none of them wore shoes, a strong indication they knew the plane was to ditch.

All bodies had "external and multiple fractures" and there was evidence of fire in the floating debris of mail, cushions and miscellany in the area.

A flotilla of small boats from the carrier Philippine Sea picked up the corpses and debris from the lost airliner.

Coastguard Capt. Donald MacDiarmid said the evidence "indicates the pilot did not have everything go sour suddenly or he would not have had time to warn people to get into jackets and get their shoes off. I would assume the pilot ditched the aircraft."

Asked why the big plane, Honolulu-bound from San Francisco, had sent no radio call after a routine position report at 5:04 p.m., MacDiarmid said:

"So many things could have caused it, it's foolish to conjecture."

Other theories were that the plane may have thrown a propeller or been hit by a meteor.

Russian Spy
Jailed 30
Years, Fined

NEW YORK (AP)—Russian Colonel Rudolf I. Abel, highest-ranking Soviet spy ever caught in the United States, escaped a death penalty today but was sentenced to 30 years in prison and given a $3,000 fine.

Abel masterminded a spy ring operation for nine years in the U.S. He was the first foreign national ever to stand trial for his life on an espionage charge in a civilian American courtroom.

Abel entered the U.S. illegally from Canada in 1948. In Brooklyn, hardly more than a few steps away from the courtroom where he was tried, convicted and sentenced, he set about establishing himself under the identity of an artist.

He set up powerful short-wave radio receivers capable of picking up messages directly from Moscow.

He also made microfilm pictures of data obtained and secreted the films in a wide variety of objects such as coins, bolts, pencils and pieces of wood.

All apparently went well until last spring when a fellow agent, Lt.-Col. Reino Hayhanen, reneged on his mission and defected to the West.

Hayhanen was the chief witness against Abel.

Jewish Leaders
Deny Protest
Says Premier

Premier Bennett stated today he had received a three-man delegation of Jewish leaders from Vancouver who rejected "anti-Jewish" allegations made against the B.C. Social Credit government.

He said these three "leading Jewish citizens" had dissociated themselves from organizations such as the United Jewish Peoples' League which have called on the government to repudiate anti-Semitic statements made at the B.C. Social Credit convention last month.

The premier intimated the delegation would be issuing a statement to this effect and he named Vancouver lawyer Nathan Nemetz, QC, as one of the delegation.

In Vancouver this morning Mr. Nemetz told The Times he would be making a statement soon.

The United Jewish Peoples' League sent a telegram to Premier Bennett Thursday asking him to repudiate "anti-Semitic" statements made at the Social Credit League convention by Percy Young of Dawson Creek.

Rangers, Dogs Join
Police in Search

A 36-year-old father joined about a dozen police, South Vancouver Island Rangers and neighbors in a search for his missing seven-year-old son at 1.30 p.m. today.

Missing is Miles Hoffer, 3906 Holland Avenue.

At 2.45 p.m. the search was extending east along Holland Avenue, on the border of Saanich and unorganized territory between midnight and 4 a.m. in the northwest corner of the city where large fields of high grass and bush abound.

Miles, recovering from a serious bout of influenza contracted last week, went missing

Door Unlocked at 4 A.M.
Police cruisers, walkie-talkies and two tracking dogs were thrown into the search, co-ordinated by Saanich police.

Mrs. Hoffer said she got up at 4 a.m. to tend her three-and-a-half-months-old baby when she noticed the back door was unlocked. Miles was missing when his father went to wake him at 7 a.m.

Mrs. Hoffer, who didn't return to bed, said Miles did not pass through the kitchen while she was up.

There are six other children in the family, ranging to 12 years of age, but they couldn't tell the parents anything.

"There are no clues at all," Mrs. Hoffer said. "We haven't any idea why Miles did it. He's never done anything like this before."

Miles description is: four feet in height, chunky build, fair complexion, blue eyes, wearing blue jeans, red tartan shirt, beige jacket, brown shoes and no socks.

Four Saanich police cars were circling the area to search empty fields and buildings while the foot party fanned out from the home with walkie-talkies and the tracking dogs.

FRANCE WALKS OUT

Arms to Tunisia
Shakes NATO

(From Times' News Services)

Unprecedented indignation rocked France today at Thursday's announcement that both Britain and the U.S. were sending arms shipments to Tunisia.

Developments were:

1. Premier Felix Gaillard said that next month's NATO summit meeting in Paris could not achieve its aims for Atlantic solidarity unless the question of arms shipments to Tunisia is settled to France's satisfaction first.

2. France stormed out of a NATO conference in Paris, charging that the United States and Britain had "betrayed" the Atlantic Alliance.

3. France delivered a strong protest to Britain when Ambassador Jean Chauval called on Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

4. In Tunis President Habib Bourguiba said a shipment of arms from Egypt will arrive soon.

5. Canada had known for some weeks that Britain and the United States proposed to send arms to Tunisia, external affairs officials said today. However, in the Commons Prime Minister Diefenbaker declined to answer the question directly.

In reply to Opposition Leader St. Laurent, the prime minister said he did not wish to say anything which might aggravate the situation.

Mr. St. Laurent and CCF Leader Coldwell both put the same question again: did the government have advance information?

Mr. Diefenbaker declined to reply.

"Same as Suez" was the comment from an unidentified member from the opposition side of the House.

In Paris, Gaillard told the National Assembly France refused to join in sending arms to Tunisia without proper guarantees.

NEW SESSION OF HOUSE
PLANNED EARLY IN '58

OTTAWA (CP)—Works Minister Green today indicated the government aims to wind up the current session of Parliament before Christmas and call a new one early in the New Year.

In reply to Colin Cameron (CCF-Nanaimo), Mr. Green said "it was never the intention to have a regular session" which lasts from five to six months. "The work of the regular session will have to be done next year."

Laika Now Dead Moscow Says So

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet scientist announced today that Laika, the dog in Sputnik II, suffocated when the oxygen regenerative equipment aboard the earth satellite stopped working.

The scientist, Alexei Pokrovsky, told a press conference there never had been any plan to bring Laika back to earth. He said she died painlessly of oxygen deficiency when equipment designed to regenerate oxygen had completed its program.

There had been speculation that Laika died of a drug or poison administered with her last food. There also had been speculation that the Russians intended to bring her back to earth; and even one report here that she had been parachuted back.

ENDS SPECULATION

Today's press conference apparently was intended to set at rest all this speculation about the first living thing to get into outer space. One scientist said Thursday Laika will be immortalized on a plaque near Leningrad honoring Soviet dog heroes of the Second World War.

TUNISIA

joined France in denouncing the arms shipments.

The group, headed by Representative Wayne Hays of Ohio, said in a statement the arms deliveries "constituted a danger to the unity of the North Atlantic treaty alliance."

Bourguiba was making his weekly broadcast to the nation a few hours after a token shipment of British arms had arrived here. An American shipment was expected later.

Bourguiba said current American policy could help to bring about a solution of the Algerian problem.

French newspapers from extremists right to extreme left expressed indignation at Britain and the United States.

The charge of "blackmail" appears in practically every editorial and some papers, among the most conservative, bluntly suggest France should quit the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The Communists seized the issue as an instrument to attack NATO.

The rightist Parisien-Liberte says "Some will dream of a French government having enough energy and a sense of national pride to inform London and Washington that, after these arms deliveries, France cannot remain in NATO."

Before the French delegation walked out of the NATO conference, Senator Michel Debre protested against the "ruthless and unjustified" Anglo-American decision.

Debre said: "President Eisenhower and Mr. Harold Macmillan have betrayed the Atlantic alliance... there can be no reconciliation as far as I, as a delegate to the NATO parliamentary conference, am concerned unless the United States and Britain stop forthwith the sending of arms to Tunisia."

Debre, a former follower of wartime premier Gen. Charles de Gaulle, said French soldiers fighting nationalist rebels in Algeria are writing home saying their "comrades are being killed by Atlantic Pact arms."

The French delegation said in a statement it was walking out to express the feeling provoked in France "by the ruthless and unjustified decision of two NATO member governments."

It said it considered the search for Atlantic unity "has no further point," declared it would take no further part in the conference, and hoped that NATO leaders would consider "this breach of Atlantic solidarity" as soon as possible.

Ambassador Herve Aland in Washington was said to have been instructed to lodge a protest with the U.S. government.

Two British planes landed in Tunis early today with the first load of the western arms. An American shipment was due in the Tunisian capital by plane later today.

SPAARK SEEKS PEACE

NATO secretary-general Paul-Henri Spaak buttonholed French delegation members in an attempt to have them reconsider their decision to walk-out.

"I think you are wrong in what you did," Spaak said.

A NATO spokesman told reporters that the French walk-out over the Tunisian arms affair would certainly be a principle topic at Saturday's meeting of NATO's 15 permanent representatives. The spokesman said that there had been no consultations within the NATO council before the British-American decision to ship arms to Tunisia.

Clement Davies, Liberal leader in the British House of Commons, told the Assembly he was "deeply distressed" by the French walkout.

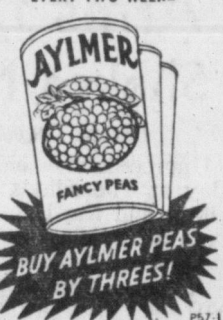

Before the U.S. Democrats condemned the U.S. move in their joint statement, Representative Hays told the NATO assembly, an advisory group:

"The French have good grounds to be discouraged. I think delivery of arms to Tunisia was a tragic mistake." Hays called the arms affair "a sterile and stupid policy."

After the French walkout, U.S. Senator Estes Kefauver (Dem. Tenn.) took the floor in the NATO assembly and went on to other matters as if nothing had happened.

France quit the UN assembly for two months in 1955 after it voted to debate the Algerian rebellion. But Britain and the United States sided then with France, and the French delegation returned only after the assembly backed down and gave Algeria the brushoff.

increase recommended by a conciliation board majority.

The unions struck to back demands for 12½ per cent boosts. Basic wage rate in the industry is $1.72 an hour which would be increased to $1.85 by the company offer. Average hourly earnings are $2.30 and would rise to $2.50, Mr. Blair said.

W. McCandlish, president of the International Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers local in Nanaimo, retorted:

"The companies, by having their bargaining done through a central industrial relations bureau, together with the nullifying effect of the province's Labor Relations Act, have made collective bargaining virtually impossible."

He said the unions found themselves dealing with company representatives "who have never worked a day in the industry, rather than the men who know every phase of it."

EFFECTS SPREAD

Effects of the strike began spreading today. Garth Griffiths, assistant general manager of B.C. Power Commission, said the shutdown of three of the Island mills who were customers had produced "significant losses in revenue."

However, he added, even if the strike is prolonged it will not have any effect on the commission's staff requirements.

Loggers are in a different position. International Woodworkers of America locals at Victoria, Duncan and Port Alberni reported the strike has had no effect on their men but, if prolonged, could result in layoffs at logging camps and converter mills.

SOVIET MERCHANT NAVY ALLEGED HUGE SPY RING

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A former Russian naval officer said today the Soviet merchant navy is a huge spy organization.

Lieut. Lev I. Predtetshevskii told a press conference every Russian merchant vessel carries several Red navy officers. These officers, he said, are spies who give their attention solely to exploration of foreign coastal waters, preparing nautical charts for military purposes and dredging out hydrographical data.

Youbou, Honeymoon Bay and Mesachie Lake have begun stockpiling chips that can't be shipped.

Largest of the strike-bound pulp companies, Powell River, reported it was making arrangements to buy newsprint supplies outside B.C. if needed to supply customers. A spokesman said most customers have at least a 60-day supply of newsprint on hand.

On other fronts, one strike was settled and another started. An eight-week strike by 60 members of Local 433 of the Pulp and Sulphite Converters Union went back to work today after Barret Roofing Limited, of Vancouver, signed a new contract providing a 16 per cent wage increase spread over two years.

But in Kelowna, no move has been made to end a strike of 180 Kelowna carpenters who Wednesday rejected a builders association offer of $2.35 an hour across the board. Present pay is $2 and $2.25 an hour.

Mafia Suspected In N.Y. Garbage Haulage Racket

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the rackets-riddled garbage hauling business in metropolitan New York raised a question today whether the Mafia mob is involved in the Teamsters Union generally and is out to take over the country.

Senator John McClellan (Dem. Ark.) and Senator Irving Ives (Rep. N.Y.) exploded into denunciation of racketeers and hoodlums after James Rosetti, president of the Greater New York Cartmen's Association, refused to testify lest he incriminate himself.

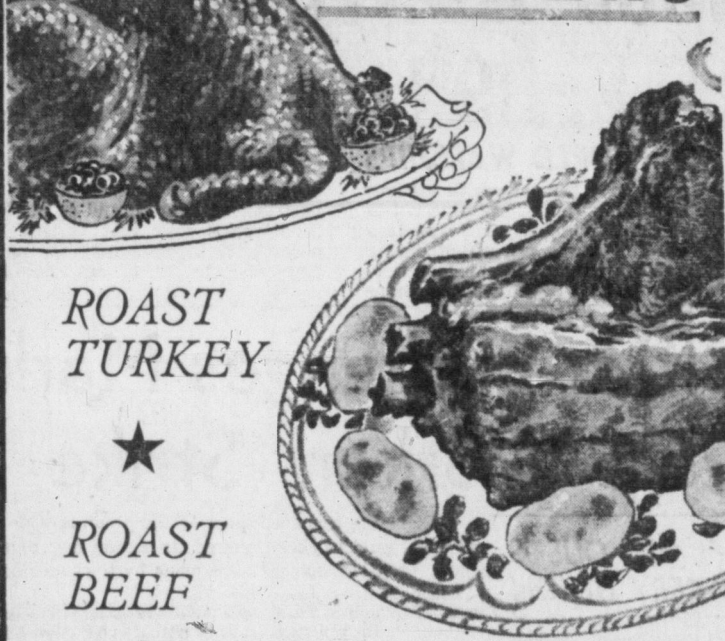

Ives, vice-chairman of the Senate rackets investigating committee, said that "all this testimony is developing a rather sinister note" and referred specifically to the testimony that the Mafia is in-

January New Target Date For First U.S. Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Army, already speeding work on earth satellites, may be ready to launch its space travellers by January.

But the boss of the program—Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the army ballistic missile agency—was cautious in outlining progress Thursday night in a meeting with newspaper men.

He said considerable revamping of the Jupiter-C weapon research rocket is needed to adapt it for satellite launching. The closest Medaris would come to a forecast was a statement that after a rocket is completely fabricated, it is not less than 30 days from the launching time.

He also noted that President Eisenhower had set March for launching of U.S. Navy's first fully-instrumented satellite with test firings of small spheres scheduled in December.

Medaris said the Russians apparently have reached a workable solution to the problem of getting a nose cone warhead of a missile back through the atmosphere and on target.

He emphasized that the United States Army has solved this problem with two tests using the Jupiter-C vehicle. Both tests of nose cone re-entry, appear

Worker Drowns As Boat Flips In Dam Tunnel

CAMPBELL RIVER — Albert Arnason, 41, of Wil- low Point, drowned Thursday afternoon at the Upper Campbell Lake dam of the B.C. Power Commission when a small boat overturned.

Three other men in the boat were rescued.

The four men, employed by Dawson and Wade Ltd., had been making hydraulic checks of the conduit that will carry water through the dam to the power house.

According to reports, at quit- ting time all four climbed into a small outboard-powered boat to leave the tunnel, and the boat overturned.

All but Arnason grabbed the boat. His body was not re- covered for 20 minutes.

Attempts at artificial respiration were in vain.

$883 in Fund For Tofino Playground

TOFINO — Centennial com- mittee here has $883 on hand for construction of a children's playground, major centennial year project here.

Of this sum the village of Tofino gave $370, and the provincial government $243, repre- senting 40 cents per capita.

Donations included in the balance of $270, now held in the local committee's bank account, are $50 from the ladies' auxiliary to Tofino Canadian Legion, $27 from Tofino PTA, $50 from a Tofino Badminton Club dance, and $20.85 from a special centennial bingo.

Plans are proceeding for celebrations in 1958, and one that promises to be of special interest will be a pageant staged by Chief Ambrose Ma- quinna and the Nootka Indians on the landing of Captain James Cook at Nootka Sound in 1778.

Chief Maquinna is a direct descendant of Chief Moka- wanna, who met Captain Cook just a year before the famous navigator's death in the Hawai- ian Islands.

The Opitsat Indians also are planning celebrations, to in- clude pageants, war canoes, and Indian dances.

President of the Tofino cen- tennial committee is Thomas Gibson, who is assisted by Bert Wallace and B. P. Warne.

Liberal's Move Ruled Non-Confidence Vote

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Wilfrid LaCroix today moved a motion of non-confidence in the government for not indicating its intention to consider a national flag for Canada.

The member for Quebec-Montmorency, seconded by Raoul Poulin (Ind.-Beauce), said in his motion the government "should consider at once steps to give to this country a truly Canadian flag."

The motion may split Liberal ranks. Opposition Leader St. Laurent said at the start of the Throne speech debate that his party would neither move a

Jobless Benefits Eased For Married Women

OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister Michael Starr today announced the end of an unemployment insurance regulation which, he said, had "overtones of discrimination" against married women.

From the start of next week, he told an applauding Commons, married women in the labor force "will be on exactly the same footing as all other claimants" for unemployment insurance.

The regulation being revoked required that any woman claiming insurance benefits within two years after her marriage had to have made 10 weekly contributions to the insurance fund. Further, if she was working at the time of her marriage, those 10 weeks of contribution had to be made following her first separation from her marriage-time job.

Mr. Starr said the government's action will extend insurance coverage to some 12,000 married women now barred from benefits by the regulation.

OTTAWA (CP)—The government today again declined to inform the Commons whether it will present a budget at this session of Parliament.

How Is Chalk Made?

A stalk of chalk is made from a mineral found in the ground. The mineral is made from calcium carbonate, which is lime. The history of that chalky mineral goes back millions of years. In fact, it gives its name to a 70 million year phase of earth's long history. This is the Cretaceous Period, meaning the Chalk Period. The Cretaceous Period ended some 60 million years ago. But in warm seas, chalk making is still going on.

Now, as then, chalk is made by tiny creatures called Foraminifera. The fancy name is coined from an older word meaning window. The window is a small hole left in the chalky house made by every foraminiferon. He is a simple one-celled creature, rather like the amoeba. However, the amoeba is a naked blob of protoplasm. The foraminiferon covers himself in a house of limey chalk. The little chalk maker dwells in warm sea waters. He floats about, seeking food. His limey shell is usually shaped like a raindrop with the window at the pointed end. He gets his building materials from the water. There is plenty of limey calcium carbonate dissolved in the seas. The tiny body is covered with two layers of secreting cells. The lime is secreted and left to harden between these layers, much as concrete is poured between steel girders. The tiny foraminiferon is a hunter, a hunter of even smaller creatures than himself. He casts a net from his window to catch diatoms and bitsy bacteria. The net is made of protoplasm, the jelly stuff which forms his soft body. In certain seas, during the Cretaceous Period, these busy fellows were as plentiful as the sand on the shores.

Earth Undergoes Change

The earth changed, and these areas were lifted from the sea. The damp beds of old shells became dry land. Some of them became the chalky white cliffs of Dover. Others formed beds of chalk in France, Denmark and Belgium. The purest chalk is white or pale grey. Less pure chalk is tinted with mud and gritty with sand.

The chalk is mined and refined. It is pounded and powdered to make blackboard chalk. About 3 per cent of a binding material is added to the mixture. Then it is molded into sticks and allowed to dry.

For making colored chalks, pigments are added to the mixture. Chalk has other uses also. In pure powdered form it is called whiting and used to cover walls and ceilings. There is whiting in paint, in rubber, in paper and even in certain inks. There is even chalk in your tooth paste. So next time you clean your teeth, you can thank the little foraminiferon who built their little windowed houses so long ago and left them to form beds of chalk.

Who discovered Madagascar? Madagascar is but a few hundred miles from the coast of east Africa. It is a tropical island paradise with shores washed by the Indian Ocean. In size, it ranks as the fourth largest island in the world. Being so near to Africa, the island was discovered before the dawn of history. The Malagasy, natives of Madagascar, are descended from these early discoverers.

Arabs visited the island 1,100 years ago. In 1500, Portuguese sailing ships arrived there. During the 17th and 18th centuries, French visitors arrived. The British visited also.

In 1883, France decided to take over the government of the island. Troops were sent to the island paradise. Since 1896, the island of Madagascar has been under the French flag. This fourth largest island in the world is now an overseas territory of the French Union.
